Between Home Diaspora Theorizing Identities:

Domicile and Diaspora Alison Blunt, 2011-07-22 Domicile and Diaspora investigates geographies of home and identity for Anglo Indian women in the 50 years before and after Indian independence in 1947 The first book to study the Anglo Indian community past and present in India Britain and Australia The first book by a geographer to focus on a community of mixed descent Investigates geographies of home and identity for Anglo Indian women in the 50 years before and after Indian independence in 1947 Draws on interviews and focus groups with over 150 Anglo Indians as well as archival research Makes a distinctive contribution to debates about home identity hybridity migration and diaspora

Arab Voices in Diaspora Layla Al Maleh, Layla Maleh, 2009 Arab Voices in Diaspora offers a wide ranging overview and an insightful study of the field of anglophone Arab literature produced across the world The first of its kind it chronicles the development of this literature from its inception at the turn of the past century until the post 9 11 era The book sheds light not only on the historical but also on the cultural and aesthetic value of this literary production which has so far received little scholarly attention It also seeks to place anglophone Arab literary works within the larger nomenclature of postcolonial emerging and ethnic literature as it finds that the authors are haunted by the same hybrid exilic and diasporic questions that have dogged their fellow postcolonialists Issues of belonging loyalty and affinity are recognized and dealt with in the various essays as are the various concerns involved in cultural and relational identification The contributors to this volume come from different national backgrounds and share in examining the nuances of this emerging literature Authors discussed include Elmaz Abinader Diana Abu Jaber Leila Aboulela Leila Ahmed Rabih Alameddine Edward Atiyah Shaw Dallal Ibrahim Fawal Fadia Faqir Khalil Gibran Suheir Hammad Loubna Haikal Nada Awar Jarrar Jad El Hage Lawrence Joseph Mohja Kahf Jamal Mahjoub Hisham Matar Dunya Mikhail Samia Serageldine Naomi Shihab Nye Ameen Rihani Mona Simpson Ahdaf Soueif and Cecile Yazbak Contributors Victoria M Abboud Diya M Abdo Samaa Abdurraqib Marta Cariello Carol Fadda Conrey Cristina Garrig s Lamia Hammad Yasmeen Hanoosh Wa l S Hassan Richard E Hishmeh Syrine Hout Layla Al Maleh Brinda J Mehta Dawn Mirapuri Geoffrey P Nash Boulus Sarru Fadia Fayezy Suyoufie

CULTURAL GEOGRAPHY IN PRACTICE Miles Ogborn, Alison Blunt, Pyrs Gruffudd, David Pinder, 2014-04-23 Cultural Geography in Practice provides an innovative and accessible approach to the sources theories and methods of cultural geography Written by an international team of prominent cultural geographers all of whom are experienced researchers this book is a fully illustrated guide to methodological approaches in cultural geography In order to demonstrate the practice of cultural geography each chapter combines the following features Practical instruction in using one of the main methods of cultural geography e g interviewing interpreting texts and visual images participatory methods An overview of a key area of concern in cultural geography e g the body national identity empire marginality A nuts and bolts description of the actual application of the theories and methods within a piece of research With the addition of boxed definitions of key concepts and descriptions of research projects by students who devised and undertook them Cultural Geography in Practice is an essential manual of research practice for both undergraduate and graduate geography students Re-theorising the Indian Subcontinental Diaspora Nilanjana Chatterjee, Anindita

Chatterjee, 2020-10-07 It is estimated that more than 30 million people of Indian Subcontinental origin presently live outside their homeland The present geo political status of the Indian Subcontinental diaspora calls for more research and newer theorisation on how migrants from the Indian Subcontinent relocate acculturate and renegotiate their identities in new host environments This volume focuses on their historical socio cultural and economic patterns of migration and identity negotiation and formation within transnational discourses While some of the chapters here focus on the nature of representations of the homeland and hostland in the works of Indian Subcontinental diasporic writers and film directors others deal with the economic and historic aspects of the Indian Subcontinental diaspora The book also includes chapters on women s Kalapani crossings liminal spaces Anglo Indian Australian diaspora Chinese Indian Canadian diaspora and Indian Subcontinental British home workers transnational space ushering in a new era of diasporic identities Diaspora,

Memory and Identity Vijay Agnew, 2005-01-01 Memories establish a connection between a collective and individual past between origins heritage and history Those who have left their places of birth to make homes elsewhere are familiar with the question Where do you come from and respond in innumerable well rehearsed ways Diasporas construct racialized sexualized gendered and oppositional subjectivities and shape the cosmopolitan intellectual commitment of scholars The diasporic individual often has a double consciousness a privileged knowledge and perspective that is consonant with postmodernity and globalization The essays in this volume reflect on the movements of people and cultures in the present day when physical social and mental borders and boundaries are being challenged and sometimes successfully dismantled The contributors from a variety of disciplinary perspectives discuss the diasporic experiences of ethnic and racial groups living in Canada from their perspective including the experiences of South Asians Iranians West Indians Chinese and Eritreans

Diaspora Memory and Identity is an exciting and innovative collection of essays that examines the nuanced development of theories of Diaspora subjectivity double consciousness gender and class experiences and the nature of home Making

demonstrates the global scope of the Filipino diaspora engaging wider scholarship on globalisation and the ways in which the dynamics of nation state institutions labour migration and social relationships intersect for transnational communities Based on original ethnographic work conducted in Ireland and the Philippines the book examines how Filipina diasporans socially and symbolically create a sense of home On one hand Filipinas can be seen as mobile as they have crossed geographical borders and are physically located in the destination country Yet on the other hand they are constrained by immigration policies linguistic and cultural barriers and other social and cultural institutions Through modalities of language rituals and religion and food the author examines the ways in which Filipinas orient their perceptions expectations practices and social spaces to the homeland thus providing insight into larger questions of inclusion and exclusion for diasporic communities By focusing on a range of Filipina experiences including that of nurses international students religious workers and personal assistants Making Home in Diasporic Communities explores the intersectionality of gender race class and belonging As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology and anthropology as well as those with interests in gender identity migration ethnic studies and the construction of home Afrodiasporic Identities in Australia Kathomi Gatwiri, Leticia Anderson, 2022-08-06 This book explores the Afro diasporic experiences of African skilled migrants in Australia It explores research participants experiences of migration and how these experiences inform their lives and the lives of their family It provides theory based arguments examining how mainstream immigration attitudes in Australia impact upon Black African migrants through the mediums of mediated moral panics about Black criminality and acts of everyday racism that construct and enforce their strangerhood The book presents theoretical writing on alternate African diasporic experiences and identities and the changing nature of such identities The qualitative study employed semi structured interviews to investigate multiple aspects of the migrant experience including employment parenting family dynamics and overall sense of belonging This book advances our understanding of the resilience exercised by skilled Black African migrants as they adjust to a new life in Australia with particular implications for social work public health and community development practices Postcolonial Theory and the United States Amritjit Singh, Peter Schmidt, 2009-11-12 At the beginning of the twenty first century we may be in a transnational moment increasingly aware of the ways in which local and national narratives in literature and elsewhere cannot be conceived apart from a radically new sense of shared human histories and global interdependence To think transnationally about literature history and culture requires a study of the evolution of hybrid identities within nation states and diasporic identities across national boundaries Studies addressing issues of race ethnicity and empire in US culture have provided some of the most innovative and controversial contributions to recent scholarship Postcolonial Theory and the United States Race Ethnicity and Literature represents a new chapter in the emerging dialogues about the importance of borders on a global scale This book collects nineteen essays written in the 1990s in this emergent field by both well established and up and coming scholars Almost all the essays have been either especially written for this volume or revised for inclusion here These essays are accessible well focused resources for college and university students and their teachers displaying both historical depth and theoretical finesse as they attempt close and lively readings The anthology includes more than one discussion of each literary tradition associated with major racial or ethnic communities Such a gathering of diverse complementary and often competing viewpoints provides a good introduction to the cultural differences and commonalities that comprise the United States today The volume opens with two essays by the editors first a survey of the ideas in the individual pieces and second a long essay that places current debates in US ethnicity and race studies within both the history of American studies as a whole and recent developments in postcolonial theory Diaspora Literature:

South Asian Diaspora, Transnationalism and Identity Ajaya K. Sahoo, Brij Maharaj, 2025-10-20 This book examines how members of the South Asian diaspora one of the world's largest diasporic communities forge complex hybrid identities at the intersection of homeland traditions and host society influences Against the backdrop of significant deterritorialization and cultural diversity it explores the nuanced ways multiple generations navigate between preserving heritage and adapting to new environments Through rich multidisciplinary perspectives the volume investigates The blending of traditional practices with new cultural elements The delicate balance between adaptation and heritage preservation The emergence of unique cultural spaces shaped by transnational connections Organized into two comprehensive sections identity formation and transnational practices this collection offers valuable insights into the lived experiences of South Asian communities worldwide and is essential reading for scholars and students in diaspora studies migration research transnationalism and South Asian cultural studies The chapters in this book were originally published in South Asian Diaspora Navigating Boundaries: A Comprehensive Study of Postcolonial Theory and Literature, 2025-02-25 Navigating Boundaries A Comprehensive Study of Postcolonial Theory and Literature delves into the intricate area of postcolonial discourse amplifying the voices emerging from the margins challenging dominant narratives while exploring the themes of identity mimicry hybridity power and resistance Drawing from key theorists such as Edward Said Homi K Bhabha Frantz Fanon Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Philip G Altbach Deepesh Chakravarthy Chandra Talpade Mohanty Gauri Viswanathan etc this book offers a deep investigation into the multiple aspects of theoretical frameworks that shape postcolonial discourse The analysis moves seamlessly from theory to literature investigating how postcolonial literary texts navigate critical issues such as hybridity mimicry identity and resistance A vital resource for students research scholars teachers and anyone curious about the dynamic field of postcolonial theory and literature this book calls readers to reflect question and join the discourse on the complex narratives that continue to shape our world Generally most of the postcolonial critiques explore linguistic imperialism but this book makes a groundbreaking contribution by foregrounding the use of vernacular languages in literary texts and critical theory positing that this is not just an aesthetic choice but a form of resistance and identity reclamation In doing so it echoes Ng g wa Thiong o s call for linguistic decolonization and applies it in a broader more diverse context examining how the act of writing in local languages disrupts colonial power dynamics and fosters cultural preservation While much of postcolonial criticism tends to centre on broad historical and political analysis Navigating Boundaries emphasizes the multiple voices coming from Africa Caribbean and South Asia offering a more intimate look at identity formation in postcolonial settings Moreover the book s interdisciplinary approach strengthens its position in the field By weaving in cultural studies sociology and psychological perspectives on gender trauma ethnicity and memory it opens up fresh pathways making the work relevant not just for literary scholars but for those interested in a wider discourse on postcolonial theory

Israel and the Diaspora: Jewish Connectivity in a Changing World Robert A. Kenedy,Uzi Rebhun,Carl S.

Ehrlich,2022-05-03 This collected volume is based on the proceedings of a symposium held in 2018 at York University Canada which was held to commemorate the 70th anniversary of Israel This symposium highlighted contemporary Jewish identity Israel Diaspora relations and how Jewish life has been transformed in light of various types of antisemitism The book considers the diasporic Jewish experiences through examining the intersections between various Jewish communities sociologically historically and geographically The text covers world Jewry in general and each of the diaspora and Israeli Jewries more specifically in the context of mutual responsibility but also focuses on areas of tension concerning values and political matters The challenges of antisemitism racism and nationalism are explored in terms of the relationship of the Jewish diasporas to their host countries This text also covers antisemitism which may take the form of traditional antisemitism or of the new antisemitism in the era of anti Israel activity related to the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions movement The latter movement is especially prevalent on university campuses and has an impact on students faculty and staff This volume is unique in its international perspective in examining issues of Jewish identity Israel diaspora relations and antisemitism and will appeal to students and researchers working in the field The Creolization of Theory Françoise

Lionnet,Shumei Shi,2011-05-19 This bold intervention in debates about the role of theory in the humanities advocates the development of a reciprocal relational and intersectional critical methodology attentive to the legacies of colonialism
