Beyond Methodological Nationalism Research Methodologies For Cross Border Studies Routledge Research In Transnationalism:

Beyond Methodological Nationalism Anna Amelina, 2012 This volume strives to establish a new agenda for methodologies in the social sciences summarizing the most important research strategies developed in the social sciences since the early globalization and transnationalization studies of the 1980s and 1990s namely the cosmopolitan approach the transnational lens the scalar approach and global and multi sited ethnography The contributions go beyond the early criticisms of methodological nationalism providing insights into new strategies and illustrating how scholars apply these research strategies in different fields such as migration research and social anthropology Analyzing the advantages and lacunae of new research strategies helps both to outline general methodological directions and to provide helpful guides for empirical analysis

Beyond Methodological Nationalism Anna Amelina, Devrim Sel D. Nergiz, Thomas Faist, Nina Glick Schiller, 2012-05-31 Cross border studies have become attractive for a number of fields including international migration studies of material and cultural globalization and history While cross border studies have expanded the critique on nation centered research lens has also grown This book revisits drawbacks of methodological nationalism in theory and methodological strategies It summarizes research methodologies of the current studies on transnationalization and globalization such as multi scalar and transnational approaches global and multi sited ethnography as well as the entangled history approach and the incorporating comparison approach This collected volume goes beyond rhetorical criticism on methodological nationalism which is mainly associated with the ignorance and naturalization of national categories It proffers insights for the systematic implementation of novel research strategies within empirical studies deployed by young and senior scholars The novelty lies in an interdisciplinary lens ranging from sociology social anthropology and history

Bracketed Belonging Kelvin E. Y. Low, 2025-07-15 Bracketed Belonging addresses how nations and their governance of security determine social constellations and shape socio political and legal assertions of belonging and allegiance Kelvin E Y Low examines the contours and limits of belonging that underlie the complex social contract between mobile migrants and nations in the context of a global military security market He explores these core themes through the case of Nepali Gurkhas and their families as military and paramilitary migrants Recruited to serve in the military or police force Gurkhas are trained in jungle warfare skills that other police groups do not possess There is thus the professional link to military training and the formation of a unique paramilitary police force with the backdrop of colonialism In these contexts this book offers fresh perspectives on studying global security migration and diasporic lives It sets a new agenda by analytically bridging empire military and security maneuvers and migratory pathways and options In doing so Bracketed Belonging serves as a novel contribution to current scholarship on migration and transnationalism and on police and security studies

Heimat and Migration Josef Stuart Len Cagle, Thomas Herold, Gabriele Maier, 2023-02-20 Discourses of Heimat and of migration both negotiate questions of identity belonging and integration moreover despite the reemergence of right wing racist and exclusionary uses of the term Heimat there are in fact more recent German language cultural texts that problematize and challenge a view of Heimat as a community that excludes the Other than there are promulgating it This volume addresses the parallel proliferation of discourses of Heimat and of migration in contemporary German language culture and demonstrates that the entanglement of migration and Heimat can be productive it can help us to reframe what it means to have a home to lose one find one or belong to one
