Design Technology and Digital Production Gabriel Esquivel, 2024-03-26 This book is a rigorous account of architecture's theoretical and technological concerns over the last decade The anthology presents projects and essays produced at the end of the first digital turn and the start of the second digital turn This anthology engages and deploys a variety of discourses topics criteria pedagogies and technologies including some of today's most influential architects practitioners academics and critics It is an unflinchingly rigorous and unapologetic account of architecture's disciplinary concerns in the last decade This is a story that has not been told in recent years everything has been refracted through the prism of the post digital generation Design Technology and Digital Production illustrates the shift to an architectural world where we can learn with and from each other develop a community of new technologies and embrace a design ecology that is inclusive open and visionary This collection fosters a sense of shared experience and common purpose along with a collective responsibility for the well being of the discipline of architecture as a whole Research Beyond Borders Lise-Hélène Smith, Anjana Narayan, 2011-12-28 This collection draws insights from an interdisciplinary group of scholars who specialize in diverse methods ranging from ethnography archival research and oral histories to quantitative data analysis and experiments used in the social sciences and humanities to reflect on the empirical methodological and practical implications of conducting research beyond one's national borders The goal of this book is to help researchers contemplate existing orientations that dominate current research processes and consider the need for transnational multidisciplinary practices that remain aware of the inequalities which continually inform research practices With this focus this collection is also a resourceful initiative that seeks to share experiences as well as extract key ideas and approaches likely to overlap or resonate in different disciplines Passed On Karla FC Holloway, 2003-09-03 A personal and historical account of the particular place of death and funerals in African American life Policing Sport Mega-Events Dennis Pauschinger, 2024-01-16 Security has become one of the most important aspects of sport mega event organisation This book explores how Rio de Janeiro was imagined and transformed into a security fortress when the 2014 Men's World Cup and the 2016 Olympics came to the city and how the fortress was nonetheless permeable and porous Dennis Pauschinger experienced exceptional backstage access at high level in the Brazilian mega event security architecture as well as at street level with the local public security sphere His ethnographic account takes us from the hidden world of surveillance and control centres to the security perimeters around stadiums and to the mundane routine of police officers during day and night shifts at local police stations or at the Special Forces headquarters This book shows how police officers' emotions and Special Forces war narratives impact the static and technology based security models at mega events and how traditional patterns of police work along lines of class and racial inequalities still prevail and shape the city's public security. The book argues against the common narrative of the positive impacts of mega event security legacies upon host cities by advancing towards a general understanding of how security governance is carried out in places where the use of digital security technologies co-exists with overly lethal and repressive forms of policing.

A Lynched Black Wall Street Jerrolyn S. Eulinberg, 2021-05-13 This book remembers one hundred years since Black Wall Street and it reflects on the 1921 Tulsa Race Massacre. Black Wall Street was the most successful Black business district in the United States yet it was isolated from the blooming white oil town of Tulsa, Oklahoma because of racism. During the early twentieth century African Americans lived in the constant threat of extreme violence by white supremacy lynching and Jim and Jane Crow laws. The text explores through a Womanist lens the moral dilemma of Black ontology and the existential crisis of living in America as equal human beings to white Americans. This prosperous Black business district and residential community was lynched by white terror, hate, jealousy, and hegemonic power using unjust laws and a legally sanctioned white mob. Terrorism operated historically based on the lies of Black inferiority with the support of law and white supremacy. Today this same precedence continues to terrorize the life experiences of African Americans. The research examines Native Americans and African Americans, the Black migration west, the role of religion, Black women's contributions, lynching, and the continued resilience of Black Americans.

Motus Dei Warrick Farah, 2021-10-26 Discover Your Place in the Movement of God. An incredible breakthrough in missions history is taking place as disciples of Jesus make more disciples of Jesus around the globe, particularly among the least reached. But what exactly are these church planting or disciple making movements? Where are they occurring and what are their unifying features? How are they manifesting in diverse populations? And can you or your organization be instrumental in catalyzing more movements? Motus Dei, Latin for movement of God, seeks to answer these questions and more. Warrick Farah has expertly synthesized an extensive conversation between mission practitioners, scholars, and seasoned movement leaders from around the world. The resulting in-depth analysis of movements provides a multi-disciplinary academic investigation of an emerging movements missiology, highlighting the importance of theology, social sciences, ethnology, and anthropology, communications theory, leadership theory, and statistical analysis. Motus Dei locates the current Church Planting Movement (CPM) phenomenon within modern history while tracing its roots back to the first century and articulates a missiological description of the dynamics of Disciple Making Movements (DMMs) in Asia, Africa, and diaspora contexts in the Global North. Offering over thirty firsthand accounts of indigenous churches planting churches among the nations, Motus Dei provides a seedbed for growing movements in diverse contexts. There are lessons to be learned here by anyone seeking to participate in the movement of God.

Ghost Faces David Greven, 2016-02-09 Finalist for the 2017 Lambda Literary Award in the LGBT Nonfiction category presented by the Lambda Literary Foundation. Ghost Faces explores the insidious nature of homophobia even in contemporary Hollywood films that promote their own homo tolerance and appear to destabilize hegemonic masculinity. Reframing Laura Mulvey's and

Gilles Deleuze's paradigms and offering close readings grounded in psychoanalysis and queer theory David Greven examines several key films and genre trends from the late 1990s forward Movies considered range from the slasher film Scream to bromances and beta male comedies such as I Love You Man to dramas such as Donnie Darko and 25th Hour to Rob Zombie's remake of the horror film Halloween Greven also traces the disturbing connections between torture porn found in such films as Hostel and gay male Internet pornography

Fulbright Labyrinths Virginia Hall-Milhouse, 2011-11 In this provocative work Virginia Milhouse demonstrates how autoethnography combines creative and analytical practices to help bring to consciousness some complex social and political agendas hidden in narratorial writings It demonstrates how an arts based qualitative research method narrative inquiry can be fused with a scientific based quantitative method DMIS IDI and compliment support and or correct each other It also demonstrates how writing as a method of inquiry can be a viable way for researchers to learn about themselves and their research as well as features standards for evaluating creatively and analytically constructed text Further the author's examination of the aesthetics of inner readiness and in betweenness will be very helpful to people doing this kind of self reflexive fieldwork The reader will also appreciate this author's recognition of the importance of combining qualitative and quantitative methodologies something not many writers can do with great success Also this book will be a real contribution to sojourners and others traveling or living abroad The work is very smart and is beautifully and clearly written The labyrinth quote at the beginning of her work is very fitting and certainly promises to illustrate those words decades critics of the discipline have argued that the historical profession is dominated by scholars unable or perhaps even unwilling to write for the public In Popularizing the Past Nick Witham challenges this interpretation by telling the stories of five historians Richard Hofstadter Daniel Boorstin John Hope Franklin Howard Zinn and Gerda Lerner who in the decades after World War II published widely read books of national history Witham compellingly argues that we should understand historians efforts to engage with the reading public as a vital part of their postwar identity and mission He shows how the lives and writings of these five authors were fundamentally shaped by their desire to write histories that captivated both scholars and the elusive general reader He also reveals how these authors efforts could not have succeeded without a publishing industry and a reading public hungry to engage with the cutting edge ideas then emerging from American universities As Witham s book makes clear before we can properly understand the heated controversies about American history so prominent in today s political culture we must first understand the postwar effort to popularize the past
