Wirén, 2017-11-01 In Hope and Otherness Jakob Wirén analyses the place and role of the religious Other in contemporary eschatology. In connection with this theme he examines and compares different levels of inclusion and exclusion in Christian, Muslim and Jewish eschatologies. He argues that a distinction should be made in approaches to this issue between soteriological openness and eschatological openness. By going beyond Christian theology and also looking to Muslim and Jewish sources and by combining the question of the religious Other with eschatology, Wirén explores ways of articulating Christian eschatology in light of religious otherness and provides a new and vital slant to the threefold paradigm of exclusivism, inclusivism and pluralism that has been prevalent in the theology of religions. Jakob Wirén's study pushes forward the frontiers of three disciplines all at the same time: theology of religions, comparative religions and eschatology. This is a challenging and important book. Gavin D Costa, University of Bristol Professor of Catholic Theology, 2017. This book explores the status of religious others in Christian eschatology and of eschatology itself as a privileged place for reflecting on religious otherness. Wirén mines not only Christian but also Jewish and Muslim sources to develop an inclusive eschatology. Hope and Otherness thus represents an important contribution to both theology of religions and comparative theology. Catherine Cornille, Boston College Professor of Comparative Theology, 2017. Roads to Paradise: Eschatology and Concepts of the Hereafter in Islam (2 vols.) Sebastian Günther, Todd Lawson, 2017-02-20 Roads to Paradise: Eschatology and Concepts of the Hereafter in Islam offers a multi-disciplinary study of Muslim thinking about paradise, death, apocalypse and the hereafter. It focuses on eschatological concepts in the Quran and its exegesis, Sunni and Shi'i traditions, Islamic theology, philosophy, mysticism and other scholarly disciplines reflecting Islamic pluralism and cosmopolitanism. Gathering material from all parts of the Muslim world, ranging from Islamic Spain to Indonesia and the entirety of Islamic history, this publication in two volumes also integrates research from comparative religion, art history, sociology, anthropology and literary studies. Unparalleled and unprecedented in its scope and comprehensiveness, Roads to Paradise promises to become the definitive reference work on Islamic eschatology for the years to come.
