Beyond Homelessness Christian Faith In A Culture Of Displacement:

Beyond Homelessness Steven Bouma-Prediger, Brian J. Walsh, 2008-06-03 This book is a brilliant use of metaphor that makes clear why the world leaves us feeling so uneasy Beyond Homelessness, 15th Anniversary Edition Steven Bouma-Prediger, Brian J. Walsh, 2023-09-12 What would the world look like if everyone had a home The rise in homeless encampments The destruction of our planet The disconnection from place caused by capitalism and technology Beyond the unavailability of housing our culture is experiencing a devastating loss of home In Beyond Homelessness Steven Bouma-Prediger and Brian Walsh explore the relationship between socioeconomic ecological and cultural homelessness Bouma-Prediger and Walsh blend groundbreaking scholarship with stirring biblical meditations while enriching their discussion with literature music and art Offering practical solutions and a hope filled vision of home they show how to heal the deep dislocations in our society In this fifteenth anniversary edition the authors return to their work with a new postscript in which they discuss the evolution of their ideas and share true stories of home and community built anew This revitalized classic is a must read for any Christian committed to social justice and anyone longing for home Security for the Pope Jordan Nyenyembe, 2013 Security issue has emerged in workshops and seminars as one of the pertinent themes of today Global security is at stake as terror networks fuel hate and intolerance against the Christian minority The Roman Catholic Church is subjected to threats by some radical section of Muslims and fundamentalists from Pentecostal sects Some Church ministers including popes have been targeted and attacked Given such a situation the security of the Pope and the Roman Catholic Church is an urgent theme for reflection in response to the concrete situations facing the Church Security issue cannot be treated as peripheral theme in contemporary ecclesiology Creation Care and the Gospel LAUSANNE MOVEMENT, 2016-06-02 How should Christians react to environmental crisis Historically evangelicals have ignored this aspect of living for Christ so this book aims to reinvigorate and empower Christians across the globe to care for creation This book collects the work of biblical scholars theologians biologists environmental researchers and community organizers who met at The Global Consultation on Creation Care and the Gospel in Jamaica in 2012 Participants from 23 countries as diverse as Argentina Bangladesh Benin and Canada gathered for five days to pray talk and reflect on the state of the planet the home in which we live and on the role and ministry of the church in caring for God's creation The book contains biblical and theological affirmations from well respected scholars and teachers reminding us that caring for creation is central to the evangelical faith It is an integral part of our mission an expression of our worship of God and a matter of great joy and hope

Partnership as Mission Kenneth Gray, Maylanne Maybee, 2023-11-10 This uniquely Canadian volume tells stories of Ellie Johnson missiologist and director of Partnerships at the Anglican Church of Canada from 1994 to 2008 More than that this book tells of God's mission and how the Anglican Church of Canada participated in that mission with our ecumenical partners Since the Anglican Congress of 1963 through the years of the ecumenical justice coalitions of the 1970s and 1980s through the drastic organizational restructuring of General Synod in the first decade of the 2000s change in the church has been continuous and relentless Ellie's skill in managing this change remains inspirational today In standing with residential school survivors identifying systemic racism seeking peace and ecojustice and contributing to global conversations about mission priorities and practices Ellie shared her experience and insight widely and effectively Through personal memories and tributes through detailed historical storytelling friends family and colleagues describe their own rich experience working with Ellie Others raise questions about the face and context of mission today recalling Ellie's favorite dictum all mission is local The collection concludes with some of Ellie's own unpublished words There is so much to appreciate about this deeply spiritual person whose legacy lives on as we draw on her legacy to find resilience and strength for today's demanding ecojustice journey

A Sort of Homecoming Marcia Boniferno, Amanda Jagt, Andrew Stephens-Rennie, 2020-08-04 We live in a culture of collective fear over climate change and mass migration and we experience increasing intense personal anxiety and despair How might the Bible's themes of homecoming and homemaking address our physical emotional and spiritual displacement This collection of essays honors the academic and community work of Brian J Walsh upon his retirement as Campus Minister at the University of Toronto Christian Reformed Campus Ministry The collection is a stunning mosaic at once academic and personal representing the many elements of Brian's life as pastor theologian professor farmer mentor and friend In an age when home feels physically and spiritually elusive for so many this volume reawakens our imaginations to the foundational biblical themes of homecoming and homemaking Academic pastoral personal and timely this volume honors Brian's career and equips readers to engage the fear and anxiety of our age with the hope of the gospel

The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd, 2014-04-28 We live in an age of global capitalism and terror In a climate of consumption and fear the unknown Other is regarded as a threat to our safety a client to assist or a competitor to be overcome in the struggle for scarce resources And yet the Christian Scriptures explicitly summon us to welcome strangers to care for the widow and the orphan and to build relationships with those distant from us But how in this world of hostility and commodification do we practice hospitality In The Gift of the Other Andrew Shepherd engages deeply with the influential thought of French thinkers Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Derrida and argues that a true vision of hospitality is ultimately found not in postmodern philosophies but in the Christian narrative The book offers a compelling Trinitarian account of the God of hospitality a God of communion who makes room for otherness who overcomes the hostility of the world through Jesus' life death and resurrection and who through the work of the Spirit is forming a new community the Church a people of welcome

The God of Second Chances Ron Clark, 2012-09-13 When the people of Judah were taken captive by the Babylonians their world was drastically changed While in exile they experienced shame guilt fear and displacement However their God had been traumatized by their behavior and also grieved with them Yet Yahweh gave them a second chance by forgiving them and bringing them home God offered them hope mercy and love The prophets were God's chosen messengers not only to provide a new vision of what could be but to suffer with the people These servants were caught in the middle between a passionate God and traumatized people As the people returned to Jerusalem to rebuild their city and their lives the prophets were with them to remind them that God had not abandoned them The author suggests that the prophets live on today through the church as those who engage their community fight for people s hearts and remind others that God gives second chances Clark shares stories from his personal ministry to the marginalized in Portland Oregon who seek relief from shame suffering and hopelessness In this hope our community receives new vision through a loving God and persistent prophets Jesus Unleashed Ron Clark,2014-01-03 Luke s narrative of Jesus was presented to Christians who had already heard and read stories of Jesus and the birth of this new movement Christianity Luke seemed to rewrite the story of Jesus similar to ancient epics of the history of a nation a movement and the tale of a hero Jesus and the church emerged in occupied Judea a nation that was not only oppressed but was in exile Occupied Judea however struggled for power and honor and in turn for marginalized people who needed God Jesus the epic hero journeyed to earth and Jerusalem to free those on the margins of society This epic story lives on today in a church that also has heard the story of Jesus but has forgotten that the friend of sinners calls Christians to also reach those who are marginalized by our occupied culture Luke invites Christians to emerge as a movement that seeks and saves those ostracized by our communities Plunging into the Kingdom Way Tim Dickau,2011-01-01 What practices might a community of faith take up that will bear witness to the alternative world Jesus envisions and calls us towards That is the question that Grandview Calvary Baptist Church an initially small and fragile group of Christ followers has kept asking over the last twenty years Along the way this small group has spawned a vibrant community of faith that has traveled along four trajectories towards a shared life in community radical hospitality justice for the least and confession leading to transformation In a culture where individualism consumerism injustice and autonomy shape us all these practices have re shaped not only the people of this church but also the neighborhood they inhabit in the East side of Vancouver British Columbia For anyone wanting to recover ancient but newly shaped practices of the first disciples Plunging into the Kingdom Way offers renewed hope By relating their story in conversation with a host of theologians sociologists and philosophers Tim Dickau sparks the imagination for how you and your friends your community or your church can live out the radical vision of Jesus in your neighborhood today Plunge in and you will discover renewed hope that you can actually follow the way of Jesus today The Nature of Things Graham Buxton,Norman C. Habel,2016-11-16 In 2015 a conference on Rediscovering the Spiritual in God s Creation was held at the Serafino winery complex in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia The aim of the conference was not to seek consensus but to survey the landscape with a view to intentional responsible action in caring for God s creation Delegates were challenged to recognize their own worldviews and to widen their horizons to encompass the enormity of the transcendence and immanence of God s presence in all creation A group of leading international scholars and experts in the fields of science ecology theology and ethics participated in a multidisciplinary conversation on the spiritual in creation with the aim of discovering fresh horizons with regard to creation care liturgy justice and discipleship within the Christian community The chapters in this volume reflect the diversity of perspectives summarized in The Serafino Declaration which was crafted towards the end of the conference This declaration which opens the volume outlines a range of views relating to the presence of the spiritual in creation views that are both traditional and radical This volume highlights the current concern over ecological destruction and finds sources of inspiration in the deepest roots of our traditions and forms of spirituality to sustain efforts towards custodianship of the land and care for God s creation Contributors David Rhoads Paul Santmire Denis Edwards Bob White Heather Eaton Ernst Conradie Vicky Balabanski Celia Deane Drummond Mark Worthing Emily Colgan Dianne Rayson Anne Gardner Mark Liederbach Patricia Fox Anne Elvey Mick Pope

Grounded in the Body, in Time and Place, in Scripture Jill Firth, Denise Cooper-Clarke, 2021-02-01 In my bibliographies there are no women in the evangelical tradition and no Australian women scholars This unique volume addresses this gap with eighteen biblically rich and academically rigorous chapters by established and emerging Australian women scholars in the evangelical tradition The authors consider our relationship with the land and Indigenous peoples neighborhood embodiment disability abortion leadership work architecture the media Song of Songs and domestic violence and Jeremiah and weaponized rape and demonstrate recent methodologies such as a social identity reading of Exodus sensory readings of Psalms and John s Gospel and discipleship readings of Mary and Martha and the woman at the well A contemporary Kriol psalm and stories of pioneering Australian women theological students and teachers complete the volume Valuable for students and teachers across Bible theology ministry and practice subjects this book is an essential inclusion in any theological library Preaching to Korean Immigrants Rebecca Seungyoun Jeong, 2022-09-14 In terms of practical theology s critical reflection on marginalized people s wounds in a wider society this book investigates the question How to proclaim the good news in response to first generation Korean immigrants contextual suffering in the United States To answer the question the book starts with investigating Korean immigrant hearers contextual predicaments in a new land to point out emerging practical theological issues in relation to the practice of preaching In this book the primary subjects are first generation Korean immigrants especially those who have relatively low socio economic status and struggle with the purpose of their lives as immigrants particularly those whose material dreams have been shattered In order to proclaim the good news this book proposes a more appropriate immigrant theology for in the practice of preaching by reclaiming the priorities of God s future in our lives and confirming God s active identification with Korean immigrant congregations in the depths of their predicament Such reconstructive work for immigrant theology arises in response to their existential hardships marginality ethnic discrimination and relative powerlessness in life While acknowledging both the possibilities and limits of the diverse forms of current Korean immigrant preaching the book then offers a strategic proposal for a new homiletic theory namely a psalmic theological homiletic This proposed homiletic is deeply rooted in the theology of the Psalms and their rhetorical movement This re envisioned mode of eschatological and prophetic preaching in times of difficulty recovers ancient Israel's psalmic rhetorical tradition that aims toward faith Its theological rhetorical strategy intends to both transform hearers' habitus of living in faith and enhance their hope-filled life through communal anticipation of God's coming future on the margins Specifically this proposed homiletic critically adopts key features from psalms of lament and their typical fourfold theological rhetorical movement i.e. lament retelling a story confessional doxology and obedient vow as now core elements of a revised Korean immigrant preaching practice

Cultivating an Evangelistic Character Christopher James Schoon, 2018-04-24 This project explores the relationship between worship discipleship and evangelism within the missional church movement Engaging contributions from liturgical theology Christian ethics and post Christendom evangelism the book proposes a missional approach to worship that when integrated with a praxis-oriented discipleship cultivates Jesus' character among God's people Along the way the project attends to the Holy Spirit's transformative presence the liturgical rhythms of remembering and anticipating and the practices of hospitality and compassion In the end Cultivating an Evangelistic Character contends that the Spirit works through the integration of worship and discipleship to form God's people In other words God's people become evangelistic or as Newbigin said the hermeneutic of the gospel

A Dialogue between Haizi's Poetry and the Gospel of Luke Xiaoli Yang, 2018-05-01 In A Dialogue between Haizi's Poetry and the Gospel of Luke Xiaoli Yang offers a conversation between the Chinese soul searching found in Haizi's 1964-1989 poetry and the gospel of Jesus Christ through Luke's testimony It creates a unique contextual poetic lens that appreciates a generation of the Chinese homecoming journey through Haizi's poetry and explores its relationship with Jesus Christ As the dialogical journey it names four stages of homecoming roots vision journey and arrival By taking an interdisciplinary approach literary study inter-cultural dialogue and comparative theology Xiaoli Yang convincingly demonstrates that the common language between the poet Haizi and the Lukan Jesus provides a crucial and rich source of data for an ongoing table conversation between culture and faith

Music, Modernity, and God Jeremy Begbie, 2013 Jeremy Begbie explores how the practices of music and the discourses it has generated bear witness to some of the pivotal theological currents and counter-currents shaping modernity Begbie argues that music is capable of yielding highly effective ways of addressing some of the more intractable theological problems and dilemmas of modernity

Contemporary Art and the Church W. David O. Taylor, Taylor & Francis, 2017-06-20 The church and the contemporary art world often find themselves in an uneasy relationship in which misunderstanding and mistrust abound Drawn from the 2015 biennial CIVA conference these reflections from theologians pastors and practicing artists imagine the possibility of a renewed and mutually fruitful relationship between contemporary art and the church

The Modern Construction and Postmodern Deconstruction of Self Kire Sharlamantov, Mia Kostovska, 2025-02-21 This book aims to explain the self as understood decades ago and its evolution in the time of postmodernism Approaching it primarily from a sociological perspective while incorporating insights from psychology and philosophy it portrays the modern self as a unitary coherent unified subject created in the time of modernity which during postmodernism has evolved into a fluid decentralized and fragmented subject with increasingly independent multiple identities The creation of the modern self has been influenced by individualization rationalization and power Each factor is explored in a separate chapter detailing its impact on the development of the modern Cartesian self The authors draw on the theories of Goffman Bauman and Baudrillard to illustrate the changing nature of the self viewing it as a performer a fluid entity and a simulacrum While Goffman is not strictly a postmodern author his ideas foreshadow postmodernism particularly regarding the transformation of the self Bauman and Baudrillard as key figures in postmodern thought provide valuable insights into this transformation of the self in contemporary times The book uniquely connects two time periods in which the self evolves arguing that social factors influence its changing characteristics As these social factors shift over time so does the self Key aspects of the self and its evolution are examined through an original multidimensional approach that spans a longer time interval

The Spirit of Jesus Unleashed on the Church Ron Clark, 2016-01-05 The Spirit of Jesus Unleashed on the Church is the third book in a series concerning the restoration of Jesus people in a world where the marginalized classes longed for reconciliation to God After Jesus ascension the early Christians fulfilled Luke's epic theme of restoration in their new empire inclusion of outcasts and endurance during the resistance As Jesus journeyed to Jerusalem so Paul and the mission of God followed the journey to the capital of the Roman world God's people today are likewise empowered by the Spirit to boldly live their mission for Jesus through love compassion and endurance in cultures that marginalize those who need God's reconciliation

Scott's Novels and the Counter-Revolutionary Politics of Place Dani Napton, 2018-05-23 Counter revolutionary or wary progressive Critical apologist for the Stuart and Hanoverian dynasties What are the political and cultural significances of place when Scott represents the instabilities generated by the Union Scott's Novels and the Counter Revolutionary Politics of Place analyses Scott's sophisticated counter revolutionary interpretation of Britain's past and present in relation to those questions Exploring the diversity within Scott's life and writings as historian and political commentator conservative committed to progress Scotsman and Briton lawyer and philosopher this monograph focuses on how Scott portrays and analyses the evolution of the state through notions of place and landscape It especially considers Scott's response to revolution and rebellion and his geopolitical perspective on the transition from Stuart to Hanoverian sovereignty
