Beyond Slash Burn And Poison Transforming Breast Cancer Stories Into Action:

Beyond Slash, Burn, and Poison Marcy Jane Knopf-Newman, 2004 Drawing on the writings of Rachel Carson Betty Ford Rose Kushner and Audre Lorde this book explores the various ways in which patient centered texts continue to leave their mark on the political realm of breast cancer and ultimately the disease itself Ordered chronologically the selections trace the progression of discussions about breast cancer from a time when the subject was kept private and silent to when it became part of public discourse The texts included are personal accounts written by women struggling to play an active role in their healing process and at the same time hoping to help others do the same Taking Charge of Breast Cancer Julia A. Ericksen, 2008-04-07 Taking Charge of Breast Cancer incorporates many components of the experience of breast cancer from personal illness to political economic factors Based on her very extensive data from interviews and content analysis Ericksen s fine writing offers a powerful narrative approach that focuses on stages of awareness and action In the process she eloquently addresses the physical and emotional consequences of breast surgery changes in body and sexuality and activism This is a major contribution to understanding the politics and experience of breast cancer Phil Brown Brown University

Disrupting Breast Cancer Narratives Emilia Nielsen, 2019-01-01 Engaging with discussions surrounding the culture of disease Disrupting Breast Cancer Narratives explores politically insistent narratives of illness Resisting the optimism of pink ribbon culture these stories use anger as a starting place to reframe cancer as a collective rather than an individual problem Disrupting Breast Cancer Narratives discusses the ways emotion gender and sexuality in relation to breast cancer diagnosis and treatment all become complicated relational and questioning Providing theoretically informed close readings of breast cancer narratives this study explores how disruption functions both personally and politically Highlighting a number of contributors in the field of health and gender studies including Barbara Ehrenreich Kathlyn Conway Audre Lorde and Teva Harrison this work takes into account documentary film television and social media as popular mediums used to explore stories of disease Fractured Borders Mary K. DeShazer, 2010-02-05 Women have been writing about cancer for decades but since the early 1990s the body of literature on cancer has increased exponentially as growing numbers of women face the searing realities of the disease and give testimony to its ravages and revelations Fractured Borders Reading Women s Cancer Literature surveys a wide range of contemporary writing about breast uterine and ovarian cancer including works by Marilyn Hacker Margaret Edson Carole Maso Audre Lorde Eve Sedgwick Mahasweta Devi Lucille Clifton Alicia Ostriker Jayne Anne Phillips Terry Tempest Williams and Jeanette Winterson among many others DeShazer s readings bring insights from body theory performance theory feminist literary criticism French feminisms and disability studies to bear on these works shining new light on a literary subject that is engaging more and more writers An important and useful book that will appeal to people in a variety of fields and walks of life including scholars teachers and anyone interested in this subject Suzanne Poirier University of Illinois at Chicago A book on a timely and important topic wisely written beyond scholarly boundaries and crossing many theoretical and disciplinary lines Patricia Moran University of California Davis The Routledge Handbook of Language and Health Communication Heidi Hamilton, Wen-ying Sylvia Chou, 2014-04-16 The Routledge Handbook of Language and Health Communication consists of forty chapters that provide a broad comprehensive and systematic overview of the role that linguistics plays within health communication research and its applications The Handbook is divided into three sections Individuals everyday health communication Health professionals communicative practices Patient provider communication in interaction Special attention is given to cross cutting themes including the role of technology in health communication narrative and observations of authentic naturally occurring contexts The chapters are written by international authorities representing a wide range of perspectives and approaches Building on established work with cutting edge studies on the changing health communication landscape this volume will be an essential reference for all those involved in health communication and applied linguistics research and practice Cancer Patients, Cancer Pathways C. Timmermann, E. Toon, 2012-10-10 Eleven essays by historians and sociologists examine cancer research and treatment as everyday practice in post war Europe and North America These are not stories of inevitable medical progress and obstacles overcome but of historical contingencies cultural differences hope and often disappointed expectations The Cancer Plot Reginald Wiebe, Dorothy Woodman, 2024-04-05 In The Cancer Plot Reginald Wiebe and Dorothy Woodman examine the striking presence of cancer in Marvel comics Engaging comics studies medical humanities and graphic medicine they explore this disease in four case studies Captain Marvel Spider Man Thor and Deadpool Cancer the authors argue troubles the binaries of good and evil because it is the ultimate nemesis within a genre replete with magic mutants and multiverses They draw from gender theory disability studies and cultural theory to demonstrate how cancer in comics enables an examination of power and responsibility key terms in Marvel's superhero universe As the only full length study on cancer in the Marvel universe The Cancer Plot is an appealing and original work that will be of interest to scholars across the humanities particularly those working in the health humanities cultural theory and literature as well as avid comics readers Under the Radar Ellen Leopold, 2009 In Under the Radar Ellen Leopold shows how nearly every aspect of our understanding and discussion of cancer bears the imprint of its Cold War entanglement The current biases toward individual rather than corporate responsibility for rising incidence rates research that promotes treatment rather than prevention and therapies that can be patented and marketed all reflect a largely hidden history shaped by the Cold War Even the language we use to describe the disease such as the guiding metaphor for treatment fight fire with fire can be traced back to the middle of the twentieth century Rachel Carson Mary Ellen Snodgrass, 2021-04-02 Rachel Carson was a marine biologist credited with the founding of the ecology movement and the rise in ecofeminism One of her most popular works was Silent Spring which challenged the use of DDT an insecticide infamous for its negative environmental effects and questioned the claims of modern industry Carson also wrote essays reviews articles and speeches to educate the public about the impacts of chemical pollutants on both the environment and the human body This literary companion provides readers with Carson's key messages via an A to Z index of topics discussed in her works including carcinogens endangered species and radioactivity

Bodies and Language Vaidehi Ramanathan, 2010 Focusing on body conditions associated with breast cancer Alzheimer's disease type 1 diabetes epilepsy partial hearing and autism this book draws on a range of critical theories to contest collectively assembled notions of abnormality disability and impairments and ways in which they emerge through language It also addresses the need for applied sociolinguists to take account of how our researching practices the texts we produce the orientations we assume the theoretical grounds from which we proceed create meanings about bodies and normalcy and the importance of remaining ever vigilant and civically responsible in what we do or claim to do Becoming Human Zakiyyah Iman Jackson, 2020-05-19 Winner 2021 Gloria E Anzald a Book Prize given by the National Women's Studies Association Winner 2021 Harry Levin Prize given by the American Comparative Literature Association Winner 2021 Lambda Literary Award in LGBTQ Studies Argues that Blackness disrupts our essential ideas of race gender and ultimately the human Rewriting the pernicious enduring relationship between Blackness and animality in the history of Western science and philosophy Becoming Human Matter and Meaning in an Antiracist World breaks open the rancorous debate between Black critical theory and posthumanism Through the cultural terrain of literature by Toni Morrison Nalo Hopkinson Audre Lorde and Octavia Butler the art of Wangechi Mutu and Ezrom Legae and the oratory of Frederick Douglass Zakiyyah Iman Jackson both critiques and displaces the racial logic that has dominated scientific thought since the Enlightenment In so doing Becoming Human demonstrates that the history of racialized gender and maternity specifically anti Blackness is indispensable to future thought on matter materiality animality and posthumanism Jackson argues that African diasporic cultural production alters the meaning of being human and engages in imaginative practices of world building against a history of the bestialization and thingification of Blackness the process of imagining the Black person as an empty vessel a non being an ontological zero and the violent imposition of colonial myths of racial hierarchy She creatively responds to the animalization of Blackness by generating alternative frameworks of thought and relationality that not only disrupt the racialization of the human animal distinction found in Western science and philosophy but also challenge the epistemic and material terms under which the specter of animal life acquires its authority What emerges is a radically unruly sense of a being knowing feeling existence one that necessarily ruptures the foundations of the human Bodily Natures Stacy Alaimo, 2010-10-25 How do we understand the agency and significance of material forces and their interface with human bodies What does it mean to be human in these times with bodies that are inextricably interconnected with our physical world Bodily Natures considers these questions by grappling with powerful and pervasive material forces and their increasingly harmful effects on the human body Drawing on feminist theory environmental studies and the sciences Stacy Alaimo focuses on trans corporeality or movement across bodies and nature which has profoundly altered our sense of self By looking at a broad range of creative and philosophical writings Alaimo illuminates how science politics and culture collide while considering the closeness of the human body to the environment The Body Lisa Jean Moore, Monica J. Casper, 2014-11-06 This college level handbook offers a comprehensive and accessible overview of sociological and cultural perspectives on the human body Organized along the lines of a standard anatomical textbook delineated by body parts and processes this volume subverts the expected content in favor of providing tools for social and cultural analysis Students will learn about the human body in its social cultural and political contexts with emphasis on multiple contested meanings of the body body parts and systems Case studies examples and discussion questions are both US based and international Advancing critical body studies the book explicitly discusses bodies in relation to race class gender sexuality ability age health geography and citizenship status The framing is sociological rather than biomedical attentive to cultural meanings institutional practices politics and social problems The authors use commonly understood anatomical frames to discuss social cultural political and ethical issues concerning embodiment Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2005 Women: Images & Realities, A Multicultural Anthology Amy Kesselman, Lily D McNair, Nancy Schniedewind, 2008 This best selling anthology is a unique introduction to feminism and women s studies It presents a multidisciplinary collection of academic essays and analyses personal narratives and fiction and poetry about women s lives The selections illustrate the variety of women s experiences primarily in the United States considering both commonalities and differences among women and appreciating women s diverse approaches to living and fostering change The Nation ,2004 Food in America Andrew F. Smith, 2017-02-16 This three volume work examines all facets of the modern U S food system including the nation s most important food and agriculture laws the political forces that shape modern food policy and the food production trends that are directly impacting the lives of every American family Americans are constantly besieged by conflicting messages about food the environment and health and nutrition Are foods with genetically modified ingredients safe Should we choose locally grown food Is organic food better than conventional food Are concentrated animal feed operations destroying the environment Should food corporations target young children with their advertising and promotional campaigns This comprehensive three volume set addresses all of these questions and many more probing the problems created by the industrial food system examining conflicting opinions on these complex food controversies and highlighting the importance of food in our lives and the decisions we make each time we eat The coverage of each of the many controversial food issues in the set offers perspectives from different sides to encourage readers to examine various viewpoints and make up their own minds The first volume Food and the Environment addresses timely issues such as climate change food waste pesticides and sustainable foods Volume two entitled Food and Health and Nutrition addresses subjects like antibiotics food labeling and the effects of salt and sugar on our health The third volume Food and the Economy tackles topics such as food advertising and marketing food corporations genetically modified foods globalization and megagrocery chains Each volume contains several dozen primary documents that include firsthand accounts written by promoters and advertisers journalists politicians and government officials and supporters and critics of various views related to food and beverages representing speeches advertisements articles books portions of major laws and government documents to name a few These documents provide readers additional resources from which to form informed opinions on food issues Library Journal ,2004 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Memoirs of Well-Being Tanja Reiffenrath,2016-05-15 As the body politics of life writing in the United States change illness and disability memoirs receive considerable attention Although these narratives are framed by a lack of health they abundantly present health and do so beyond its binary relationship to the pathological This book departs from previous scholarship by bringing into focus the writers representations of cure recovery and healing as well as their reluctance to bring closure to their narratives and align their stories with traditional notions of health These memoirs thus partake in the construction of alternative narratives of illness and disability Performing Gender Violence B. Ozieblo,N. Hernando-Real,2012-01-02 Violence against women in plays bywomen has earned little mention This revolutionary collection fills that gap focusing on plays by American women dramatists written in the last thirty years that deal with different forms of gender violence Each author discusses specific manifestations of violence in carefully selected plays psychological familial war time and social injustice This book encompasses the theatrical devices used to represent violence on the stage in an age of virtual immediate reality as much as the problematics of gender violence in modern society
