the latest writings in Social and Cultural Anthropology this is a superb reference resource for anyone studying or teaching in this area Letters Without Capitals: Text and Practice in Kim Mun (Yao) Culture Jacob Cawthorne, 2020-12-29

Letters without Capitals Texts and Practices in Kim Mun Yao Culture examines the writing culture of Kim Mun communities in Southeast Asia and China The Kim Mun who belong to the Yao ethnic group are renowned for their Daoist religious practices and religious texts written in Chinese script This work takes an unpublished Kim Mun letter that was composed in Laos and sent to Vietnam as its centrepiece Through an analysis of the letter one which uses ethnographic accounts of Kim Mun communities and studies of Kim Mun literary and religious texts it demonstrates that writing is a cultural technology that primarily serves the purposes of the Kim Mun themselves rather than being an artefact of historical and cultural relationships of dependency on external state institutions or religious constituencies This has broad implications regarding our understanding of how writing can be adapted and deployed by minority communities on and beyond the margins of the state and of the underlying relationships between writing identity and power Irish/ness Is All Around Us Olaf

Zenker, 2013-04-01 Focusing on Irish speakers in Catholic West Belfast this ethnography on Irish language and identity explores the complexities of changing and contradictory senses of Irishness and shifting practices of Irish culture in the domains of language music dance and sports The author's theoretical approach to ethnicity and ethnic revivals presents an expanded explanatory framework for the social re production of ethnicity theorizing the mutual interrelations between representations and cultural practices regarding their combined capacity to engender ethnic revivals Relevant not only to readers with an interest in the intricacies of the Northern Irish situation this book also appeals to a broader readership in anthropology sociology cultural studies history and political science concerned with the mechanisms behind ethnonational conflict and the politics of culture and identity in general Fact and Fiction Albrecht Koschorke, 2018-04-23 How can we develop a cultural theory starting with the basic insight that human beings are storytelling animals Within literary studies narratology is a highly developed field However literary historians have not paid much attention to the large and small stories abounding in everyday discourse guiding all kinds of social activity and providing common ground for whole societies but also fueling controversies and hostilities Moreover narrative is not only a scholarly category but has come into use in many fields of social activity as a tool for cultural self fashioning This book is based on the assumption that to a large extent social dynamics is modeled in an aesthetic manner via narratives It explores the narrative organization of cultural spaces and time frames the mythological shaping of communities and adversaries and the co production of narratives and institutions aimed at stabilizing social life In this framework the epistemological problem looms large of how an instrument as unreliable as narrative can participate in the creation of a social consensus regarding truth This problem endows the general topics explored in this book with a particularly contemporary dimension Writing in the Field Ivo Strecker, Shauna LaTosky, 2013

This festschrift is situated within the contexts of the Writing Culture debate the Rhetoric Culture project and the legacy of anthropologist Stephen Tyler's work on language and representation While Writing Culture 1986 alerted readers to the power of ethnographers over their field Writing in the Field alerts readers to the power of the field over its ethnographers Rather than reprise familiar debates about writing and representation the book's individual chapters elucidate how anthropological fieldwork is a highly fraught provisional and incomplete practice enmeshed in the gaps between self and the other The book's emphasis on the concepts of pathos epiphany and dissociation is developed through essays that are personal yet not merely subjective for they draw on and contribute to deep traditions of thinking about culture and rhetoric Series Ethnologie Forschung und Wissenschaft Vol 24 This fine collection of essays is a fitting tribute to the positive influence of Stephen Tyler an original and influential anthropologist of protean gifts E Douglas Lewis School of Social and Political Sciences U of Melbourne
