The Cinematic Legacy of Frank Sinatra

David Wills,2025-06-25 In a film career spanning more than five decades Frank Sinatra proved to be a roulette wheel of constantly spinning talent the likes of which Hollywood has rarely seen Film history is filled with stars created by the studio system Occasionally however a performer emerged who against all preconceived odds of what a star should be or look like knocked down the walls of convention by becoming nothing other than what they already were Frank Sinatra was the embodiment of this fundamental truth The legacy of his work stands apart from many of his contemporaries who essentially based their performances on an extension of a core character type Sinatra however was able to take his signature persona and translate it successfully into many film genres first as the comedic song and dance man then as the dramatic actor and romantic lead and finally as the tough guy and action hero Sinatra also respectfully challenged contemporary ideals of acting technique While being humble enough to learn from his peers he kept his acting style fresh and instinctual and earned an Oscar at a time when many actors were either classically trained or coached in the Method In The Cinematic Legacy of Frank Sinatra author David Wills presents a stunning collection highlighting the work of one of Hollywood's greatest stars in roles as varied as those in the classics Anchors Aweigh From Here to Eternity Suddenly Guys and Dolls The Man With the Golden Arm Ocean's 11 The Manchurian Candidate Von Ryan's Express and The Detective Pairing more than two hundred first generation photos with reflections on Sinatra from costars and work associates and including contributing essays by his children Nancy Sinatra Tina Sinatra and Frank Sinatra Jr it is an unforgettable showcase of the actor's transformation from world famous singer to movie star to Academy Award winner and finally to one of the most enduring icons in cinema history

From Fu Manchu to Kung Fu Panda Naomi Greene, 2014-03-31 Throughout the twentieth century American filmmakers have embraced cinematic representations of China Beginning with D W Griffith s silent classic Broken Blossoms 1919 and ending with the computer animated Kung Fu Panda 2008 this book explores China s changing role in the American imagination Taking viewers into zones that frequently resist logical expression or more orthodox historical investigation the films suggest the welter of intense and conflicting impulses that have surrounded China They make clear that China has often served as the very embodiment of otherness a kind of yardstick or cloudy mirror of America itself It is a mirror that reflects not only how Americans see the racial other but also a larger landscape of racial sexual and political perceptions that touch on the ways in which the nation envisions itself and its role in the world In the United States the exceptional emotional charge that imbues images of China has tended to swing violently from positive to negative and back again China has been loved and as is generally the case today feared Using film to trace these dramatic fluctuations author Naomi Greene relates them to the larger arc of historical and political change Suggesting that filmic images both reflect and fuel broader social and cultural impulses she argues that they reveal a constant tension or dialectic between the self and the other Significantly with the important exception of films made by Chinese or Chinese American directors the Chinese other is almost invariably portrayed in terms of the American self Placed in a broader context this ethnocentrism is related both to an ever present sense of American exceptionalism and to a Manichean world view that perceives other countries as friends or enemies Greene analyzes a series of influential films including classics like Shanghai Express 1932 The Bitter Tea of General Yen 1933 The Good Earth 1936 and Shanghai Gesture 1941 important cold war films such as The Manchurian Candidate 1962 and The Sand Pebbles 1966 and a range of contemporary films including Chan is Missing 1982 The Wedding Banquet 1993 Kundun 1997 Mulan 1998 and Shanghai Noon 2000 Her consideration makes clear that while many stereotypes and racist images of the past have been largely banished from the screen the political cultural and social impulses they embodied are still alive and well

America Noir David Cochran, 2016-06-21 In America Noir David Cochran details how ten writers and filmmakers challenged the social pieties prevalent during the Cold War such as the superiority of the American democracy the benevolence of free enterprise and the sanctity of the suburban family Rod Serling's The Twilight Zone featured victims of vast faceless bureaucratic powers Jim Thompson's noir thrillers such as The Grifters portrayed the ravages of capitalism on those at the bottom of the social ladder Patricia Highsmith in The Talented Mr Ripley placed an amoral con man in an international setting implicitly questioning America's fitness as leader of the free world Charles Willeford's pulp novels such as Wild Wives and Woman Chaser depicted the family as a hotbed of violence and chaos These artists pioneered a detached ironic sensibility that radically juxtaposed cultural references and blurred the distinctions between high and low art Their refusal to surrender to the pressures for political conformity and their unflinching portrayal of the underside of American life paved the way for the emergence of a 1960s counterculture that forever changed the way America views itself

The Political Thriller in Contemporary American Cinema Krešimir Bobaš, 2025-06-30 The Political Thriller in Contemporary American Cinema examines how political thriller films deconstruct and reflect the sociopolitical realities of the second half of the twentieth century as well as the first two decades of the twenty first century The book highlights the convergence between the cinematic narrative its underlying political discourse and the audience's perception of it Through a critical lens it analyzes how contemporary films utilize characterization narrative and suspense to examine topics of governance malfeasance and power dynamics By referring to films such as The Manchurian Candidate Zero Dark Thirty and Snowden this book traces the evolution of the political thriller questioning how its narratives mirror issues such as covert operations the erosion of democracy and governmental surveillance In turn the conspiratorial and underlying paranoid nature of these films serves as a reflection of societal anxieties and a metaphorization of the levers of power in America's modern day democracy Consequently this book serves as a contribution to the growing body of research on political cinema and the way it simultaneously reflects and shapes political life through its role as a sociocultural phenomenon In doing so it invites readers to further delve into the exploration of these films which represent complex commentaries on the structures of corporations media and the military that are predominant in contemporary American society and cinema
