the story of a year in which children's arms and legs get longer and traces of babyhood fade a year that feels interminable to a ten year old looking forward and fleeting to that ten year old's mother who can always stop here go back and remember This delightfully evocative gift book is a reminder to stop and enjoy the precious time we have with our kids while we have them Through Susan's recollections of moments from her childhood and the ongoing lives of her children we're reminded of our own childhoods and of the necessity to stop and pay attention to hold on Harvard Business School Bulletin ,1971
