The Dead Emcee Scrolls The Lost Teachings Of Hip Hop By Saul Williams:

The Dead Emcee Scrolls Saul Williams, 2006-02-01 In the underground labyrinths of New York City's subway system beneath the third rail of a long forgotten line Saul Williams discovered scrolls of aged yellowish brown paper rolled tightly into a can of spray paint His quest to decipher this mystical ancient text resulted in a primal understanding of the power hip hop has to teach us about ourselves and the universe around us Now for the first time Saul Williams shares with the world the wonder revealed to him by the Dead Emcee Scrolls I have paraded as a poet for years now In the process of parading I may have actually become one but that's another story another book This book is a book that I have been waiting to finish since 1995 This is the book that finished me The story I am about to tell may sound fantastic It may anger some of you who have followed my work You may feel that you have come to know me over the years and in some cases you have but in others well this is a confession Hip-Hop Redemption Ralph Basui Watkins, Ralph C. Watkins, 2011-10 A sociologist and pop culture expert offers a balanced engagement of hip hop and rap music showing God's presence in the music and the message

Identity Formation in Globalizing Contexts Christina Higgins, 2011-10-28 The volume explores how new millennium globalization mediates language learning and identity construction It seeks to theorize how global flows are creating new identity options for language learners and to consider the implications for language learning teaching and use To frame the chapters theoretically the volume asserts that new identities are developing because of the increasingly interconnected set of global scapes which impact language learners' lives Part 1 focuses on language learners in transnational contexts exploring their identity formation when they shuttle between cultures and when they create new communities of fellow transnationals Part 2 examines how learners come to develop intercultural selves as a consequence of experiencing global contact zones when they sojourn to new contexts for study and work Part 3 investigates how learners construct new identities in the mediascapes of popular culture and cyberspace where they not only consume but also produce new globalized identities Through case studies narrative analysis and ethnography the volume examines identity construction among learners of English French Japanese and Swahili in Canada England France Hong Kong Tanzania and the United States Critical Media Pedagogy Ernest Morrell, Rudy Duenas, Veronica Garcia, Jorge Lopez, 2015-04-25 This practical book examines how teaching media in high school English and social studies classrooms can address major challenges in our educational system The authors argue that in addition to providing underserved youth with access to 21st century learning technologies critical media education will help improve academic literacy achievement in city schools Critical Media Pedagogy presents first hand accounts of teachers who are successfully incorporating critical media education into standards based lessons and units The book begins with an analysis of how media have been conceptualized and studied it identifies the various ways that youth are practicing media as well as how these practices are constantly increasing in sophistication Finally it offers concrete examples of how to develop a rigorous standards based content area curriculum that embraces new media practices and features media production The Planetary Humanism of European Women's Science Fiction Eleanor Drage, 2023-10-13 The Planetary Humanism of European Women's Science Fiction argues that utopian science fiction written by European women has since the seventeenth century played an important role in exploring the racial and gender possibilities of the outer limits of the humanist imagination This book focuses on six works of science fiction from the UK France Spain and Italy Jennifer Marie Brissett's Elysium Nicoletta Vallorani's Sulla Sabbia di Sur and Il Cuore Finto di DR Aliette de Bodard's Xuya Universe series Elia Barcelo's Consecuencias Naturales and Historias del Crazy Bar a collection of stories by Lola Robles and Maria Concepcion Regueiro It sets these in conversation with key gender and critical race scholars Judith Butler Rosi Braidotti Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Paul Gilroy and Jack Halberstam It asserts that a key concern for feminism anti racism and science fiction now is to seek inventive ways of returning to the question of the human in the context of increasing racial and gender divisions Offering unique access to contemporary and historical women writers who have mobilised the utopian imagination to rethink the human this book is of use to those conducting research in Gender Studies Philosophy History and Literature Mining the Heartrock Quarry Kalp El Roi, 2011-09-16 Enjoy the new book from the author of Uttering Oracles For my HeartRock I am willing to endure pressure communion drilling and whatever else it may take to reach the heart

Soundin' Canaan Paul db Watkins, 2025-01-21 Part exploration of a key group of Black Canadian poets part literary cultural and musical history Soundin Canaan demonstrates how music in Black Canadian poetry is not solely aesthetic but a form of social ethical and political expression Soundin Canaan refers to the code name often used for Canada during the Black migration to Canada The book analyzes the contributions of key Black Canadian poets including their poetic styles and their performances The book has several key objectives including recuperating the collision of the historical and the Biblically derived figure of Canaan the promised land of freedom and security for an African American population seeking to leave the shackles of slavery behind and the northern terminus of the underground railroad Centering around the poetry of George Elliott Clarke Dionne Brand M NourbeSe Philip Wayde Compton and rapper K naan it delves into how these poets draw inspiration from African American and Afro diasporic musical genres such as blues jazz reggae and dub hip hop and remix to reshape the notions of identity and citizenship Soundin Canaan asks what does Canadian citizenship sound like especially when voiced by Black Canadian poets who embrace a fluid and multicultural form of citizenship that moves between local and global spaces much like music does Using a DJ Methodology the author mixes in close readings of poetry music cultural and literary history as well as various interviews with the poets The book includes an accompanying soundtrack to further enhance the reading experience Listening to the poets in this book that is in listening closely to the poems sounds and musical samples they bring into the mix constitutes sonic citizenship This co performative act of reading listening and sounding serves as a reminder of how citizens inhabit and negotiate life in Canada beyond the formal legal framework of the nation state
