Ione,2024-08-27 This book is focused on how understanding ourselves as humans is incomplete without considering both biological and cultural aspects Using the neurocultural perspective the book explores how everything in the world is filtered back and forth through the brain and culture The thrust of the book therefore is to explore the power of art in creating a bridge between cultural and neuroscientific lines of inquiry Looking at both clinical and non clinical populations the text examines historical foundations distinguishes congenital developmental conditions from those that are acquired and emphasizes how the brain constructs our sensory experiences Several distinctive features separate this research from other publications First the book opens with a review of how the historical literature is still etched into the ideas we employ to explain elements across the interdisciplinary fields of art aesthetics our sensory experience psychology cognition and well being Second the research adopts a humanistic rather than a philosophical or social science perspective in demonstrating the value of coupling anatomy and physiology with the natural and social environment In this artists from all genres are incorporated Among them are Iris Murdoch Ludwig van Beethoven Leonardo da Vinci Cristoforo de Predis Rembrandt Federico Fellini Chuck Close and David Hockney Case studies demonstrate how neuroscientific research meshes with art individual and cultural variables in ways that range from health and well being to physiological decline and biological traumas These include a case study that examines how Oliver Sacks combined biology and biography in his writings It also explores art projects in several genres inspired by his studies Another case study is on the role of film as a useful clinical tool Here the book also demonstrates that cinematic devices used by filmmakers intersect with perceptual and cognitive neuroscience A defining feature of the analysis is the integration of research on brain injuries with humanistic responses in film literature and the visual arts This section outlines the lack of consensus regarding the causes and treatment of shell shock in World War I before introducing how research and art now work with PTSD TBI Finally the book examines therapeutic cases of professional and non professional artists concluding with a discussion of synesthesia and the senses

Chronic Sorrow Susan Roos,2002 Grief and loss are burgeoning concerns for professional disciplines such as nursing social work family therapy psychology psychiatry law religion and medicine Although understanding has increased in virtually all other areas of grief and loss chronic sorrow has received scant attention Chronic sorrow is a natural grief reaction to losses that are not final but continue to be present in the life of the griever This book views chronic sorrow in a life span perspective and reveals the effect on the griever and the people close to them This book fills a void in the literature and attempts to develop a comprehensive analysis of chronic sorrow that will secure its position within the field of grief and loss

Dancing with the Unconscious Danielle Knafo, 2012-04-23 In writing and lecturing over the past two decades on the relationship between psychoanalysis and art Danielle Knafo has demonstrated the many ways in which these two disciplines inform and illuminate each other This book continues that discussion emphasizing how the creative process in psychoanalysis and art utilizes the unconscious in a quest for transformation and healing Part one of the book presents case studies to show how free association transference dream work regression altered states of consciousness trauma and solitude function as creative tools for analyst patient and artist Knafo uses the metaphor of dance to describe therapeutic action the back and forth movement between therapist and patient past and present containment and release and conscious and unconscious thought The analytic couple is both artist and medium and the dance they do together is a dynamic representation of the boundless creativity of the unconscious mind Part two of the book offers in depth studies of several artists to illustrate how they employ various media for self expression and self creation Knafo shows how artists though mostly creating in solitude are frequently engaged in significant relational processes that attempt rapprochement with internalized objects and repair of psychic injury Dancing with the Unconscious expands the theoretical dimension of psychoanalysis while offering the clinician ways to realize greater creativity in work with patients

Clinical Ethics on Film M. Sara Rosenthal, 2018-06-08 This book discusses feature films that enrich our understanding of doctor patient dilemmas The book comprises general clinical ethics themes and principles and is written in accessible language Each theme is discussed and illuminated in chapters devoted to a particular film Chapters start with a discussion of the film itself which shares details behind the making of the film box office and critical reception casting and other facts about production The chapter then situates the film in a history of medicine and medical sociology context before it delves into the clinical ethics issues in the film and how to use it as a teaching aid for clinical ethics Readers will understand how each film in this collection served to bring particular clinical ethics issues to the public's attention or reflected medico legal issues that were part of the public discourse The book is a perfect instructor's guide for anyone teaching bioethics healthcare ethics medical sociology medical history healthcare systems narrative medicine or nursing ethics

Lying Down in the Ever-Falling Snow Wendy Austin, E. Sharon Brintnell, Erika Goble, Leon Kagan, Linda Kreitzer, Denise Larsen, Brendan Leier, 2013-04-23 First used to describe the weariness the public felt toward media portrayals of societal crises the term compassion fatigue has been taken up by health professionals to name along with burnout vicarious traumatization compassion stress and secondary traumatic stress the condition of caregivers who become too tired to care Compassion long seen as the foundation of ethical caring is increasingly understood as a threat to the well being of those who offer it Through the lens of hermeneutic phenomenology the authors present an insider's perspective on compassion fatigue its effects on the body on the experience of time and space and on personal and professional relationships Accounts of health professionals alongside examinations of poetry images movies and literature are used to explore the notions of compassion hope and hopelessness as they inform the meaning of caring work The authors frame their expos of compassion fatigue with the very Canadian metaphor of lying down in the snow If suffering is imagined as ever falling snow then the need for training and resources for safe journeying in winter country becomes apparent Recognizing the phenomenon of compassion fatigue reveals the role that health services education and the moral habitability of our healthcare environments play in supporting professionals ability to act compassionately and to endure The One Year Book of Amazing Stories Robert Petterson, 2018-10-09 ECPA 2020 Christian Book Award Finalist You wouldn't believe it but James Earl Jones the voice of Darth Vader grew up mute Michael Jordan was cut from his high school basketball team Albert Einstein was bullied mercilessly in school Beethoven's mom almost aborted him Life takes the strangest sharp turns and sometimes U turns Robert Petterson popular speaker storyteller and author has been a student for his entire life of what God is teaching us through those real life U turns In this book he compiles 365 amazing stories that teach lessons you won't easily forget Each entry is written in the rest of the story style popularized by Paul Harvey With The One Year Book of Amazing Stories you'll marvel at how God has used the lives of these ordinary people to change the course of human history

Genre-Busting Dark Comedies of the 1970s Wes D. Gehring, 2016-03-29 This examination of dark comedies of the 1970s focuses on films which concealed black humor behind a misleading genre label All That Jazz 1979 is a musical about death hardly Fred and Ginger territory This masking goes beyond misnomer to a breaking of formula that director Robert Altman called anti genre Altman's MASH 1970 ridiculed the military establishment in general the Vietnam War in particular under the guise of a standard military service comedy The picaresque Western Little Big Man 1970 turned the bluecoats vs Indians formula upside down the audience roots for the Indians instead of the cavalry The book covers 12 essential films including Harold and Maude 1971 Slaughterhouse Five 1972 One Flew Over the Cuckoo's Nest 1975 and Being There 1979 with notes on A Clockwork Orange 1971 These films reveal a compounding complexity that reinforces the absurdity at the heart of dark comedy

Cinema, MD Eelco F. M. Wijdicks, 2020 Cinema MD follows the intersection of medicine and film and how filmmakers wrote a history of medicine over time analyzing not only changing practices changing morals and changing expectations but also medical stereotypes medical activism and violations of patients integrity and autonomy Examining over 400 films with medical themes over a century of cinema this book establishes the cultural medical and historical importance of the art form

Pink Floyd and Philosophy George A. Reisch, 2011-04-15 With their early experiments in psychedelic rock music in the 1960s and their epic recordings of the 1970s and 80s Pink Floyd became one of the most influential and recognizable rock bands in history As The Pink Floyd Sound the band created sound and light shows that defined psychedelia in England and inspired similar movements in the Jefferson Airplane s San Francisco and Andy Warhol s New York City The band s subsequent recordings forged rock music s connections to orchestral music literature and philosophy Dark Side of the Moon and The Wall ignored pop music s ordinary topics to focus on themes such as madness existential despair brutality alienation and socially induced psychosis They also became some of the best selling recordings of all time In this collection of essays sixteen scholars expert in various branches of philosophy set the controls for the heart of the sun to critically examine the themes concepts and problems usually encountered in the pages of Heidegger Foucault Sartre or Orwell that animate and inspire Pink Floyd s music These include the meaning of existence the individual s place in society the interactions of knowledge and power in education the contradictions of art and commerce and the blurry line the tragic line in the case of Floyd early member Syd Barrett died in 2006 between genius and madness Having dominated pop music for nearly four decades Pink Floyd s dynamic and controversial history additionally opens the way for these authors to explore controversies about intellectual property the nature of authorship and whether wholes especially in the case of rock bands are more than the sums of their parts

New Prophet or Spiritual Villain? Denny JA,2020-11-01 If you wish to be alive many times with different personalities and various experiences watch and appreciate a significant number of films Undergo through the imagination and ponder their numerous stories as if you were living in those stories Watching good films make me encounter different events as if I dived and became part of the films I interact with various roles in the films feel the story of the depth or falsehood of love the struggle the friendship the success or the failure the betrayal and the tragedy presented in the films Every week I watch about 3 10 films it depends on my other activities My friends who know my fixation with films say that being a political or business consultant is just my side job And my main job is watching films It is not the satisfaction of watching the latest movies that move me But it is the film that made me feel like I was making a spiritual journey into the atmospheres and events in the films My mind is truly enriched While watching the movie I laughed got angry was overwhelmed choked and shed the tears I came across Richard Nixon s words If you want to explore politics don t read political science books but read religion philosophy and literature Based on my personal experience Nixon s quote needs to be revised and expanded If you want to explore the human spirit and the character watch a good film Contemplate and live it as if you were engaged in the events taking place in the film

Cine-Ethics Jinhee Choi,Mattias Frey,2013-10-15 This volume looks at the significance and range of ethical questions that pertain to various film practices Diverse philosophical traditions provide useful frameworks to discuss spectators affective and emotional engagement with film which can function as a moral ground for one s connection to others and to the world outside the self These traditions encompass theories of emotion phenomenology the philosophy of compassion and analytic and continental ethical thinking and environmental ethics This anthology is one of the first volumes to open up a dialogue among these diverse methodologies Contributors bring to the fore some of the assumptions implicitly shared between these theories and forge a new relationship between them in order to explore the moral engagement of the spectator and the ethical consequences of both producing and consuming films
