Understanding Jonathan Lethem Matthew Luter, 2015-07-15 Understanding Jonathan Lethem is a study of the novels short fiction and nonfiction on a wide range of subjects in the arts by American novelist Jonathan Lethem who is the recipient of the National Book Critics Circle Award for Fiction for Motherless Brooklyn a MacArthur Foundation genius grant and the Locus Award for Best First Novel for Gun with Occasional Music Matthew Luter explores the key contemporaries of and influences on Lethem who is the Roy Edward Disney Professor of Creative Writing at Pomona College Luter begins this volume by explaining how Lethem's innovative and provocative essay on creative appropriation The Ecstasy of Influence differs from other writing about influence suggesting an artistic mode that celebrates thoughtful borrowing Readings of Lethem's three major novels follow taken together Motherless Brooklyn The Fortress of Solitude and Chronic City present a novelist coming to terms with the joys and downsides of artistic influence Luter concludes the edition with an examination of Lethem's third collection Lucky Alan And Other Stories Borrowing openly and promiscuously from earlier traditions both high and low experimental fiction comic books art film detective novels Lethem displays a career long interest in questioning what literary originality might mean in a postmodern age Some suggest that such borrowings indicate a literary well that has run dry making writers such as Lethem mere patchwork artists Luter argues instead that Lethem's propensity for wearing his influences and obsessions on his sleeve encourages new thought about originality itself Out with it's all been done and in with look at all that's been done and all that we can still do with it

Popular Music and the Poetics of Self in Fiction

,2021-11-29 Popular Music and the Poetics of Self in Fiction explores the various links between the self and popular music in contemporary fiction In the novels discussed in this volume musical references go far beyond creating a tapestry of sound they make literary characters come alive by giving an account of the physiological and psychological effects of their musical experiences and of their ways of life in different sub cultural and social groups With plots revolving around songs and albums musicians and bands and fans and scenes the thematic focus on the self encompasses the relation of musical taste and identity construction popular music's function as a medium of individual and collective memory and its uses in everyday life across decades spaces and genres

Best of Times, Worst of Times Wendy Martin,Cecelia Tichi,2011-04-04 A collection of short stories depicting and analyzing key issues in America's New Gilded Age a phrase that embodies the glitz and glamour of one of the wealthiest countries in the world but also suggests the greed corruption and inequalities teeming just below the surface

Diseases and Disorders in Contemporary Fiction James Peacock,Tim Lustig,2013-04-17 The essays in this collection address the current preoccupation with neurological conditions and disorders in contemporary literature by British and American writers The book places these fictional treatments within a broader cultural and historical context exploring such topics as the two cultures debate the neurological turn postmodernism and the post postmodern and responses to September 11th Considering a variety of materials including mainstream literary fiction the graphic novel popular fiction autobiographical writing film and television contributors consider the contemporary dimensions of the interface between the sciences and humanities developing the debate about the post postmodern as a new humanism or a return to realism and investigating questions of form and genre and of literary continuities and discontinuities Further the essays discuss contemporary writers attempts to engage the relation between the individual and the social looking at the relation between the syndrome referring to the prevalence in contemporary literature of neurological phenomena evident at the biological level and existing work in the field of trauma studies where explanations tend to have taken a psychoanalytical form allowing for perspectives that question some of the assumptions that have marked both these fields The current literary preoccupation with neurological conditions presents us with a new and distinctive form of trauma literature one concerned less with psychoanalysis than with the physical and evolutionary status of human beings A History of New York in 101 Objects Sam Roberts,2016-08-30 The story of America s great metropolis told through 101 distinctive objects that span the history of New York all reproduced in full color Modeled on the best selling A history of the world in 100 objects this is the story of America s great metropolis told through 101 significant objects that span the history of New York The Art of the Author Interview Sarah Anne Johnson,2005 A practical guide to one of the most rewarding forms of literary journalism

Jonathan Lethem and the Galaxy of Writing Joseph Brooker,2021-06-17 Author of Motherless Brooklyn and The Fortress of Solitude Jonathan Lethem is one of the most celebrated and significant American writers working today This new scholarly study draws on a deep knowledge of all Lethem s work to explore the range of his writing from his award winning fiction to his work in comics and criticism Reading Lethem in relation to five themes crucial to his work Joseph Brooker considers influence and intertextuality the role of genres such as crime science fiction and the Western the imaginative production of worlds superheroes and comic book traditions and the representation of New York City Close readings of Lethem s fiction are contextualized by reference to broader conceptual and comparative frames as well as to Lethem s own voluminous non fictional writing and his adaptation of precursors from Franz Kafka to Raymond Chandler Rich in critical insight Jonathan Lethem and the Galaxy of Writing demonstrates how an understanding of this author illuminates contemporary literature and culture at large Jonathan Lethem James Peacock,2013-07-19 Jonathan Lethem is the first full length study dedicated to the work of an exciting genre busting contemporary writer with an increasingly high profile in American literature Examining all of Lethem s novels as well as a number of his short fictions essays and critical works this study shows how the author s prolific output his restlessness and his desire always to be subverting literary forms and genres are consistent with his interest in subcultural identities The human need to break off into small groupings subcultures or miniature utopias is mirrored in the critical tendency to enforce generic boundaries To break down the boundaries between genres then is partly to make a nonsense of critical distinctions between high and low literature and partly to reflect the wider need to recognise difference to appreciate that other people no matter how outlandish and alien they may appear share similar desires experiences and problems With this in mind James Peacock argues that Lethem s experiments with genre are not merely games or elaborate literary jokes but ethical necessities particularly when viewed in the light of the losses and traumas that shadow all of his writing Jonathan Lethem therefore makes an important contribution not just to Lethem studies but also to debates about genre and its position in postmodern or post postmodern literature It will be of interest to all scholars and students of contemporary American writing as well as those interested in genre fiction and literature s relationship with subcultures
