James Lee Burke is an acclaimed writer of crime novels in which protagonists battle low life thugs who commit violent crimes and corporate executives who exploit the powerless. He is best known for his Dave Robicheaux series set in New Orleans and the surrounding bayou country. With characters inspired by his own family, Burke uses the mystery genre to explore the nature of evil and an individual's responsibility to friends, family, and society at large. This companion to his works provides a commentary on all of the characters, settings, events, and themes in his novels and short stories, along with a critical discussion of his writing style, technique, and literary devices. Glossaries describe the people and places and define unfamiliar terms. Selected interviews provide background information on both the writer and his stories. Heaven's Prisoners James Lee Burke, 2010-06-10
