

The background of the book cover is a photograph of a sunset or sunrise over a body of water. The sky is filled with dark, dramatic clouds, and the sun is a bright orange glow on the horizon. The water is calm, reflecting the light from the sky. In the foreground, several dark, jagged rocks are partially submerged in the water. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Keener, 2011-11-01 Christianity Today 2013 Book Award Winner Winner of The Foundation for Pentecostal Scholarship s 2012 Award of Excellence 2011 Book of the Year Christianbook com s Academic Blog Most modern prejudice against biblical miracle reports depends on David Hume s argument that uniform human experience precluded miracles Yet current research shows that human experience is far from uniform In fact hundreds of millions of people today claim to have experienced miracles New Testament scholar Craig Keener argues that it is time to rethink Hume s argument in light of the contemporary evidence available to us This wide ranging and meticulously researched two volume study presents the most thorough current defense of the credibility of the miracle reports in the Gospels and Acts Drawing on claims from a range of global cultures and taking a multidisciplinary approach to the topic Keener suggests that many miracle accounts throughout history and from contemporary times are best explained as genuine divine acts lending credence to the biblical miracle reports      Which Way the Wind Blows Judith Cremer,2007-04 In 1976 Don and Judy Cremer and their two very young children moved into a Christian commune in an inner city district of Portland Oregon Participants in a risky outreach experiment they expected to experience all things in common with their co habitants But suddenly thrust into a myriad of both personal and corporate struggles they unexpectedly discovered the uncommon and often miraculous protection and provision of God Coping with dangers and dilemmas and developing discernment of the winds of the Spirit without being blown away by every wind of doctrine has produced an indelible imprint of spiritual maturity in their lives Written with delightful candor and authenticity Judy s memoir allows us a peek over her shoulder taking us back in time 30 years Her story is just as compelling and relevant for today as she touches on the Vietnam War era Ford s presidency the birth of the New Monastic Movement Born in Portland Oregon Judith Cremer returned there at age 19 after meeting and marrying her husband Donald in California It was there in the midst of the Jesus Movement revival of the 1970s they experienced the events chronicled in this memoir Following her career as a retail store manager and paralegal during the 1980s and 90s she now relishes the slower pace of life in the Arkansas Ozarks She and Don have four grown children and six grandchildren and one of their favorite pastimes is traveling around the country visiting them They enjoy renovating their historic home and remain occupied working with various local ministries For many years Judith wrote a monthly column in her church s newsletter and has led and formatted women s Bible studies Judith has numerous essays and short stories to her credit dealing with current events women s interest and Christian growth This is her first book

Meditations on the Holy Spirit of God Sheldon Stephenson,2012-01-30 Within these pages we find forty nine meditations on the Holy Spirit that are born of reflection on a wide variety of Scripture passages from both the Old and New Testament from Genesis to Revelation The author s vast pastoral experience permeates his words as he reminds us that the Spirit dwells within each of us His meaningful and insightful exploration of Scripture gently invites us to meditate on the Word to realize how the working of the Spirit is intricately woven into the fabric of our everyday lives and to pray with the Spirit who is ever present to us Although readers may find this book to be a worthy companion particularly during the seven weeks between Easter and Pentecost these meditations insights and prayers can be used with great benefit at any time as the Spirit moves The fruit of the Spirit is offered for all who wish to deepen their spiritual life      From Horseback to Desktop PC Doug Bower,2007-03 You have struggled with doubt and skepticism yourself As you present your faith and think about it you find it difficult to share it with nonbelievers This is not because you are afraid to but because skeptics just don t seem to want to understand This contributes to your doubt and skepticism Still though you struggle with your faith you find that what you do believe is congruent with the Christian tradition and with Scripture itself This work does not attempt to convince the reader to believe a certain way Rather it is simply the expression of faith from a modern circuit rider It serves as a facilitator of expressing faith of thinking about it and hopefully stimulating others to express their faith in the contexts of skepticism and traditional acceptance Should you disagree with the points of the book great I simply hope that you will present your own version in some form Maybe you ll write your own book

Gentle Dove Douglas Cooper Ph. D.,2010-11 WARNING This book may be hazardous to your religious lethargy No one reads this book without being changed No one reads this book without being incredibly challenged and blessed Why because the topic of the Holy Spirit carries with it a powerful transforming energy which renews the soul of anyone who approaches it After the cross the most important teaching in all of Christendom is the doctrine of the baptism of the Holy Spirit John said that he baptized with water but the one who was to come after him would baptize with fire and the Holy Spirit This sacred fire the fire of love is here Now A gift A treasure for you The purpose of this book is to demonstrate that the filling of the Spirit is not merely an idea to believe in but an enlightening empowering encounter to be experienced each day It is the throbbing heart of a vital dynamic Christianity Consciousness is rising as Christians move the foundation of their spiritual lives from law to grace from rules to relationship from dogma to devotion from belief to experience This book invites you to be part of this exciting journey part of the new Pentecost It is designed to move you from a traditional doctrinal paradigm as the foundation of your religious experience to a new relational spiritual paradigm which recognizes that connection in the now moment by moment intimate connection with the Divine through the indwelling presence of the Holy Spirit is everything The love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which is given unto us Romans 5 5
