Garfield ...* E. E. Brown, 1881 Electa Dennis W. Fabel, 2002-03-11 This is a work of historical fiction I have endeavored to balance the historical accuracy of places dates and characters with a reasonable portrayal of how the actual people might have lived their lives in what we now recognize as Montana s history Using fictional liberty I have depicted the character s personalities through their words and actions just like in real life That I believe is the key to reconciling and understanding what really happened in southwest Montana in the early 1860s The Vail family Electa Bryan Francis Thompson Joseph Swift and Henry Plummer among others in this story were actual people We should understand that due to the complex natures of people and history people made decisions based on equally complex motives and acted accordingly just as they do now We can regret that Electa never kept a diary or to our knowledge never communicated to anyone why she left what was then Idaho Territory The fact is that no one knows Only God understands what motivated those who have lived before us To judge them based on obviously biased writings especially of their own time seems unfair at best if not criminal The same Constitution that guarantees our rights should have protected those hung by so called Vigilante Justice Today few can appreciate the hardships of that wilderness life But we can and should honor the endeavors of those who lived then by realizing and remembering that they were probably not as they have been represented in any book of history or fiction Of course there are no living witnesses to testify of what they were truly like Only the land itself and a few buildings remain as mute observers of those who lived a very real dangerous yet exciting adventure in America s early West

As recognized, adventure as with ease as experience about lesson, amusement, as without difficulty as pact can be gotten by just checking out a book The Lives She Left Behind By James Long moreover it is not directly done, you could acknowledge even more with reference to this life, in the region of the world.
