The Man Who Laughs Victor Hugo, 2015-12-29 URSUS I Ursus and Homo were fast friends Ursus was a man Homo a wolf Their dispositions tallied It was the man who had christened the wolf probably he had also chosen his own name Having found Ursus fit for himself he had found Homo fit for the beast Man and wolf turned their partnership to account at fairs at village fetes at the corners of streets where passers by throng and out of the need which people seem to feel everywhere to listen to idle gossip and to buy quack medicine The wolf gentle and courteously subordinate diverted the crowd It is a pleasant thing to behold the tameness of animals Our greatest delight is to see all the varieties of domestication parade before us This it is which collects so many folks on the road of royal processions Ursus and Homo went about from cross road to cross road from the High Street of Aberystwith to the High Street of Jedburgh from country side to country side from shire to shire from town to town One market exhausted they went on to another Ursus lived in a small van upon wheels which Homo was civilized enough to draw by day and guard by night On bad roads up hills and where there were too many ruts or there was too much mud the man buckled the trace round his neck and pulled fraternally side by side with the wolf They had thus grown old together They encamped at haphazard on a common in the glade of a wood on the waste patch of grass where roads intersect at the outskirts of villages at the gates of towns in market places in public walks on the borders of parks before the entrances of churches When the cart drew up on a fair green when the gossips ran up open mouthed and the curious made a circle round the pair Ursus harangued and Homo approved Homo with a bowl in his mouth politely made a collection among the audience They gained their livelihood The wolf was lettered likewise the man The wolf had been trained by the man or had trained himself unassisted to divers wolfish arts which swelled the receipts Above all things do not degenerate into a man his friend would say to him Never did the wolf bite the man did now and then At least to bite was the intent of Ursus He was a misanthrope and to italicize his misanthropy he had made himself a juggler To live also for the stomach has to be consulted Moreover this juggler misanthrope whether to add to the complexity of his being or to perfect it was a doctor To be a doctor is little Ursus was a ventriloquist You heard him speak without his moving his lips He counterfeited so as to deceive you any one s accent or pronunciation He imitated voices so exactly that you believed you heard the people themselves All alone he simulated the murmur of a crowd and this gave him a right to the title of Engastrimythos which he took He reproduced all sorts of cries of birds as of the thrush the wren the pipit lark otherwise called the gray cheeper and the ring ousel all travellers like himself so that at times when the fancy struck him he made you aware either of a public thoroughfare filled with the uproar of men or of a meadow loud with the voices of beasts at one time stormy as a multitude at another fresh and serene as the dawn Such gifts although rare exist In the last century a man called Touzel who imitated the mingled utterances of men and animals and who counterfeited all the cries of beasts was attached to the person of Buffon to serve as a menagerie
