Towelhead By Alicia Erian:

Towelhead Alicia Erian, 2006-04-10 The story of a girl failed by her parents and by a conflicted America Towelhead is an ultimately redemptive and moving work that no one can afford to ignore The year is 1991 When Jasira's mother finds out what has been going on between her boyfriend and her thirteen year old daughter she has to make a choice and chooses to send Jasira off to Houston Texas to live with her father A remote disciplinarian prone to explosive rages Jasira's father is unable to show his daughter the love she craves and far less able to handle her feelings about her changing body Bewildered by extremes of parental scrutiny and neglect Jasira begins to look elsewhere for affection but Saddam Hussein has invaded Kuwait and high school has become a lonely place for a towelhead When her father meets and forbids her to see her boyfriend it becomes lonelier still But there is always Mr Vuoso a neighboring army reservist whose son Jasira babysits Mr Vuoso as Jasira discovers has an extensive collection of Playboy magazines And he doesn't seem to think there's anything wrong with Jasira's body at all Painfully funny tender and sexually charged Towelhead is that rare thing a gloriously readable novel unafraid to take risks Towelhead Alicia Erian, 2014-11-06 Funny disturbing completely compelling TOWELHEAD was picked as a New York Times Notable Book of 2005 Jasira a teenaged Arab American girl is sent away by her mother to live with her father after the mother's boyfriend begins paying her too much attention But Jasira's father is unable to show her the affection she craves or to handle her feelings about her rapidly changing body America is about to go to war in Kuwait and Jasira becomes ever more isolated at school and begins to look for love in all the wrong places Mr Vuoso a neighbour and army reservist who catches her looking at his copy of Playboy while she is babysitting his son is quick to take advantage of her vulnerability Things look very bad for Jasira until a pregnant neighbour Melina offers her a lifeline and in the novel's hilarious and heartbreaking climax manages to bring father and daughter finally a little closer to one another

Men in Color Josep M. Armengol, 2011-01-18 Comprising seven different chapters the collection Men in Color attempts to analyze and revisit the representation of ethnic masculinities both white and non white in and through contemporary U S literature and cinema If most of the existing studies on masculinity and race have centered on one specific model of racialized masculinities Men in Color attempts to provide an introductory perspective on different racialized masculinities simultaneously including African American Asian American Chicano Arab American and also white masculinity which is analyzed as another ethnic and gendered construct rather than as a paradigm of normalcy and universality By exploring several ethnic masculinities in relation to each other the present volume aims to highlight both the differences and the similarities between different patterns of masculinity showing how even as gender is inflected by race certain aspects or features of masculinity remain unchanged across the ethnic board Ultimately the volume as a whole illustrates both the changing nature of masculinities as well as the recurrence of certain stereotypes such as the hypersexualization and or the feminization of ethnic males which recur in and across several ethnicities The constant tension and intersection between gender and race is the subject of this book which hopes to contribute some notes and reflections on ethnic masculinities to the much more complex and larger discussion about gender and racial identities in our increasingly multicultural and globalized 21st century world

New Body Politics Therí A. Pickens, 2014-02-05 In the increasingly multi racial and multi ethnic American landscape of the present understanding and bridging dynamic cross cultural conversations about social and political concerns becomes a complicated humanistic project How do everyday embodied experiences transform from being anecdotal to having social and political significance What can the experience of corporeality offer social and political discourse And how does that discourse change when those bodies belong to Arab Americans and African Americans Ther A Pickens discusses a range of literary cultural and archival material where narratives emphasize embodied experience to examine how these experiences constitute Arab Americans and African Americans as social and political subjects Pickens argues that Arab American and African American narratives rely on the body s fragility rather than its exceptional strength or emotion to create urgent social and political critiques The creators of these narratives find potential in mundane experiences such as breathing touch illness pain and death Each chapter in this book focuses on one of these everyday embodied experiences and examines how authors mobilize that fragility to create social and political commentary Pickens discusses how the authors focus on quotidian experiences complicates their critiques of the nation state domestic and international politics exile cultural mores and the medical establishment New Body Politics participates in a vibrant interdisciplinary conversation about cross ethnic studies American literature and Arab American literature Using intercultural analysis Pickens explores issues of the body and representation that will be relevant to fields as varied as Political Science African American Studies Arab American Studies and Disability Studies

Race and the Suburbs in American Film Merrill Schleier, 2021-07-01 This book is the first anthology to explore the connection between race and the suburbs in American cinema from the end of World War II to the present It builds upon the explosion of interest in the suburbs in film television and fiction in the last fifteen years concentrating exclusively on the relationship of race to the built environment Suburb films began as a cycle in response to both America s changing urban geography and the re segregation of its domestic spaces in the postwar era which excluded African Americans Asian Americans and Latinx from the suburbs while buttressing whiteness By defying traditional categories and chronologies in cinema studies the contributors explore the myriad ways suburban spaces and racialized bodies in film mediate each other Race and the Suburbs in American Film is a stimulating resource for considering the manner in which race is foundational to architecture and urban geography which is reflected promoted and challenged in cinematic representations Hope for Film Ted Hope,Anthony Kaufman,2020-08-18

Essential for the aspiring filmmaker this is an inspiring tell all look at the independent film business from one of the industry's most passionate supporters Todd Solondz director of Welcome to the Dollhouse Hope for Film captures the rebellious punk spirit of the indie film boom in 1990s New York City and its collapse two decades later to its technology fueled regeneration and continuing streaming based evolution Ted Hope whose films have garnered 12 Oscar nominations draws from his own personal experiences working on the early films of Ang Lee Eddie Burns Alan Ball Todd Field Hal Hartley Michel Gondry Nicole Holofcener and Todd Solondz as well as his tenures at the San Francisco Film Society Fandor and Amazon Studios taking readers through the decision making process that brought him the occasional failure as well as much success Whether navigating negotiations with studio executives over final cuts or clashing with high powered CAA agents over their clients Hope offers behind the scenes stories from the wild and often heated world of specialized cinema where art and commerce collide As mediator between these two opposing interests Hope offers his unique perspective on how to make movies while keeping your integrity intact and how to create a sustainable business enterprise out of that art while staying true to yourself Against a backdrop of seismic changes in the independent film industry from corporate co option to the rise of social media and the streaming giants Hope for Film provides not only an entertaining and intimate ride through the business of arthouse movies over the last decades but also hope for its future There is nobody in the independent film world quite like Ted Hope His wisdom and heart shine through every page Ang Lee Academy Award winning director of Brokeback Mountain Alan Ball Thomas Richard Fahy,2013-08-29 Collected interviews with the screenwriter of the Academy Award winning film American Beauty and creator of the Emmy Award winning television series Six Feet Under and True Blood Edinburgh Companion to the Arab Novel in English Nouri Gana,2015-04-17 Opening up the field of diasporic Anglo Arab literature to critical debate this companion spans from the first Arab novel in 1911 to the resurgence of the Anglo Arabic novel in the last 20 years There are chapters on authors such as Ameen Rihani Ahdaf Towelhead Alicia Erian,2007 American Unexceptionalism Kathy Knapp,2014-05 The novels in question all take place in the sprawling terrain that stretches out beyond the Twin Towers the postwar suburbs that since the end of World War II have served like the Twin Towers themselves as a powerful advertisement of dominance to people around the globe by projecting an image of prosperity and family values These suburban tales and their everyman protagonists grapple however indirectly with the implications of the apparent decline of the economic geopolitical and moral authority of the United States In the context of perceived decay and diminishing influence these novels actively counteract the narrative of American exceptionalism frequently peddled in the wake of 9 11 The Book Review Digest ,2005 Truth Is the Arrow, Mercy Is the Bow Steve Almond,2024-04-09 The long awaited book about the craft of creative writing from Steve Almond beloved teacher mentor and author From the acclaimed author of twelve books of fiction and nonfiction including All the Secrets of The World and the New York Times bestsellers Candyfreak and Against Football comes a craft book that is at once irreverent and iconoclastic In Truth is the Arrow Mercy is the Bow Steve Almond employs the radical empathy he displayed as co host with Cheryl Strayed of the podcast Dear Sugars to explore the joys and trials of storytelling and to explode the myths that hold us back from writing our deepest and truest work The book includes chapters on plot character and chronology but travels far beyond the earnest intentions of most craft books It includes essays on humor sex writer s block and the dividends of failure as well as prompts to generate new work and a rollicking Frequently Asked Questions section You ll never think about writing the same way again Contemporary Arab-American Literature Carol Fadda-Conrey,2014-05-30 The last couple of decades have witnessed a flourishing of Arab American literature across multiple genres Yet increased interest in this literature is ironically paralleled by a prevalent bias against Arabs and Muslims that portrays their long presence in the US as a recent and unwelcome phenomenon Spanning the 1990s to the present Carol Fadda Conrey takes in the sweep of literary and cultural texts by Arab American writers in order to understand the ways in which their depictions of Arab homelands whether actual or imagined play a crucial role in shaping cultural articulations of US citizenship and belonging By asserting themselves within a US framework while maintaining connections to their homelands Arab Americans contest the blanket representations of themselves as dictated by the US nation state Deploying a multidisciplinary framework at the intersection of Middle Eastern studies US ethnic studies and diaspora studies Fadda Conrey argues for a transnational discourse that overturns the often rigid affiliations embedded in ethnic labels Tracing the shifts in transnational perspectives from the founders of Arab American literature like Gibran Kahlil Gibran and Ameen Rihani to modern writers such as Naomi Shihab Nye Joseph Geha Randa Jarrar and Suheir Hammad Fadda Conrey finds that contemporary Arab American writers depict strong yet complex attachments to the US landscape She explores how the idea of home is negotiated between immigrant parents and subsequent generations alongside analyses of texts that work toward fostering more nuanced understandings of Arab and Muslim identities in the wake of post 9 11 anti Arab sentiments With the Face of the Enemy Katharina Motyl,2024-11-20 With the Face of the Enemy focuses on the writings of Arab American authors between 2001 and 2011 Positioned as Arab Americans in the post 9 11 U S this underexamined group of writers projects unique insights into both the Western and Arab worlds Using the lens of postcolonial literary theory Katharina Motyl explores how the War on Terror turned Arab Americans into enemies within their own country Countering the master narrative of a clash of civilizations between the Islamic world and the West the fictional and poetic texts discussed in this book alternate between deconstructing neo Orientalist stereotypes and critiquing U S neocolonialism in the Greater Middle East on the one hand and critically examining Arab culture for instance its patriarchal outlook on the other Motyl pays special attention to texts written by Arab American women who have radically advocated for self determination in areas like sexuality and mode of dress thus rejecting the stereotype of Arab women as oppressed victims With the Face of the Enemy takes a serious look at how the aesthetics of Arab American literature negotiates the many psychosocial consequences the domestic War on Terror and the U S wars in Iraq and Afghanistan have had on the Arab American community Dark Roots Cate Kennedy,2018-11-20

Heartbreakingly detailed vibrant and vital prize winning stories by an Australian contributor to The New Yorker Entertainment Weekly In this coolly exact sharp evocative and often poetic collection of award winning short fiction Cate Kennedy daringly travels to the deepest depths of the human psyche to explore the collision between simmering inner lives the cold outside world and the hidden motivations that propel us all to act The New York Times Book Review Kennedy captures entire lives expertly documenting the risks and compromises made in both forging and escaping relationships Her 17 standout stories are populated by people on the brink whether it s a woman floundering with her own loss and emotional immobility as her lover lies in a coma a neglected wife who cannot convince her husband of the truth about his two brutish shamelessly libidinous friends or a married woman who comes to realize that her too tight wedding ring isn t the only thing that s stuck in her relationship Elle Each character must make a choice and none is without consequence even the smallest decisions have the power to destroy or renew to recover and relinquish Devastating evocative richly comic and full of provocative messages tantalizingly revealed Dark Roots deftly unveils the traumas that incite us to desperate measures and the coincidences that drive our lives O The Oprah Magazine With an effortless talent for the comic and the chilling Cate Kennedy has crafted stories that are sly seductive and surprising A standout debut Alicia Erian author of Towelhead
