Dick, 2012-04-17 Named one of Time's 100 Best Books Ubik is a mind bending classic novel about the perception of reality from Philip K Dick the Hugo Award winning author of The Man in the High Castle From the stuff of space opera Dick spins a deeply unsettling existential horror story a nightmare you'll never be sure you've woken up from Lev Grossman Time Glen Runciter runs a lucrative business deploying his teams of anti psychics to corporate clients who want privacy and security from psychic spies But when he and his top team are ambushed by a rival he is gravely injured and placed in half life a dreamlike state of suspended animation Soon though the surviving members of the team begin experiencing some strange phenomena such as Runciter's face appearing on coins and the world seeming to move backward in time As consumables deteriorate and technology gets ever more primitive the group needs to find out what is causing the shifts and what a mysterious product called Ubik has to do with it all More brilliant than similar experiments conducted by Pynchon or DeLillo Roberto Bolaño

The World Philip K. Dick Made Pamela Renee Jackson, 1999 Aggressive Fictions Kathryn Hume, 2012-01-15 A frequent complaint against contemporary American fiction is that too often it puts off readers in ways they find difficult to fathom Books such as Bret Easton Ellis's American Psycho Katherine Dunn's Geek Love and Don DeLillo's Underworld seem determined to upset disgust or annoy their readers or to disorient them by shunning traditional plot patterns and character development Kathryn Hume calls such works aggressive fiction Why would authors risk alienating their readers and why should readers persevere Looking beyond the theory based justifications that critics often provide for such fiction Hume offers a commonsense guide for the average reader who wants to better understand and appreciate books that might otherwise seem difficult to enjoy In her reliable and sympathetic guide Hume considers roughly forty works of recent American fiction including books by William Burroughs Kathy Acker Chuck Palahniuk and Cormac McCarthy Hume gathers attacks on the reader into categories based on narrative structure and content Writers of some aggressive fictions may wish to frustrate easy interpretation or criticism Others may try to induce certain responses in readers Extreme content deployed as a tactic for distancing and alienating can actually produce a contradictory effect for readers who learn to relax and go with the flow the result may well be exhilaration rather than revulsion
