Appraising Research Evaluation In Academic Writing:

Appraising Research: Evaluation in Academic Writing S. Hood, 2010-05-13 Focusing on the introductions to research articles in a variety of disciplines the author uses appraisal theory to analyze how writers bring together multiple resources to develop their positions in the flow of discourse It will be most useful for researchers new to appraisal and to EAP teachers

A Corpus-based Contrastive Study of the Appraisal Systems in English and Chinese Scientific Research Articles Xu Yuchen, Yan Xuan, Su Rui, Kou Ying, 2021-12-28 Appraisal is the way language users express their attitude towards things people behaviour or ideas In the last few decades significant achievements have been made in Appraisal Theory research yet little attention has been paid to appraisal in scientific texts especially in relation to the contrast to how it is applied in English and Chinese This title examines the similarities and differences of Appraisal systems in English and Chinese scientific research articles Using a self constructed corpus of scientific research articles the authors make cross linguistic comparisons in terms of the quantity and distribution patterns of categories of appraisals They creatively categorise articles into theoretical scientific research articles and applied studies and discover that for both languages each genre can have its own favorite mode of distribution for the realization of appraisal systems In addition this research helps appraisal theory systems to become more explicit specific and more applicable for the analysis of scientific research articles Students and scholars of applied linguistics comparative linguistics and corpus linguistics will find this an essential reference

Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline-Specific Skill in Higher Education Ezza, El-Sadig Y., Drid, Touria, 2019-12-27 It is now held that writing influences and is influenced by the discipline where it occurs The representations that writers employ to produce and comprehend texts are said to be sensitive to the specificities of their disciplinary discourse communities This exposes writers to divergent disciplinary demands and expectations on what counts as good and appropriate writing in terms of generic structure discourse features and stylistic preferences reflecting dissimilar practices Because of such exigencies academic writing seems at times to be very challenging especially for novice scholars Thus any attempt to perceive the function of academic writing in higher education or to evaluate its quality should not discard the shaping force of the disciplines Teaching Academic Writing as a Discipline Specific Skill in Higher Education is a critical scholarly resource that examines the role of writing within academic circles and the disciplinary practices of writing in scholastic environments The book will also explore the particular difficulties that confront writers in the disciplines as well as the endeavors of educational institutions to develop discipline specific writing traditions among practicing and novice scholars Featuring a range of topics such as blended learning data interpretation and knowledge construction this book is essential for instructors academicians administrators professors researchers and students

Dynamic Assessment of Students' Academic Writing Prithvi N. Shrestha, 2020-09-11 This book explores the application of an innovative assessment approach known as Dynamic Assessment DA to academic writing assessment as developed within the Vygotskian sociocultural theory of learning DA blends instruction with assessment by targeting and further developing students Zone of Proximal Development ZPD The book presents the application of DA to assessing academic writing by developing a set of DA procedures for academic writing teachers It further demonstrates the application of Hallidayan Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL combined with DA to track undergraduate business management students academic writing and conceptual development in distance education This work extends previous DA studies in three key ways i it explicitly focuses on the construction of a macrogenre whole text as opposed to investigations of decontextualized language fragments ii it offers the first in depth application of the powerful SFL tool to analyse students academic writing to track their academic writing trajectory in DA research and iii it identifies a range of mediational strategies and consequently expands Poehner s 2005 framework of mediation typologies Dynamic Assessment of Students Academic Writing will be of great value to academic writing researchers and teachers language assessment researchers and postgraduate students interested in academic writing alternative assessment and formative feedback in higher education

Appraisal and the Transcreation of Marketing Texts Nga-Ki Mavis Ho, 2024-01-31 This book contributes to growing debates on transcreation applying an appraisal framework to texts from luxury brands in Chinese and English to reveal new insights into marketing transcreation and set out transcreation as an area of study in its own right The volume charts the origins of the term transcreation emerging from the interplay of established concepts of translation creation localisation and adaptation and ongoing debates on what should be transcreated and how Using these dialogues as a point of departure Ho outlines a way forward for transcreation research by advocating for the use of an appraisal framework taken from work in systemic functional linguistics and employed to evaluate persuasion in language In focusing on marketing texts from the websites of three luxury brands in English and Chinese the book explores how this approach can surface fresh perspectives on the different ways in which the processes and practices of marketing transcreation are used to generate persuasion across languages The volume looks ahead to the implications for other language pairs and the applications of the appraisal framework to understand transcreation practice of other genres such as literary texts This book will be of interest to students and scholars in translation studies and marketing studies

Critical Multimodal Studies of Popular Discourse Emilia Djonov, Sumin Zhao, 2013-09-23 Studies of multimodality have significantly advanced our understanding of the potential of different semiotic resources verbal visual aural and kinetic to make meaning and allow people to achieve various social purposes such as persuading entertaining and explaining Yet little is known about the role that individual nonverbal resources and their interaction with language and with each other play in concealing and supporting or drawing attention to and subverting social boundaries and inequality political or commercial agendas This volume brings together contributions by prominent and emerging scholars that address this gap through the critical analysis of multimodality in popular culture texts and semiotic practices It connects multimodal analysis to critical discourse analysis demonstrating the value of different approaches to multimodality for building a better understanding of critical issues of central interest to discourse analysis semiotics applied linguistics education cultural and media studies

Multiculturalism, Language, and Race in English Education in Japan: Agency, Pedagogy, and Reckoning Gregory Paul Glasgow ,2023-03-15 It is claimed that the English language teaching ELT profession incorporates principles of multiculturalism tolerance and pluralism especially since it is viewed as a practical tool to promote intercultural exchange However as movements for social justice worldwide become more prevalent some stakeholders in the field are beginning to question the field s genuine commitment to such values In Japan for example is the English language truly viewed as a practical communication tool to engage with diverse interlocutors on the global stage Or do problematic discourses regarding the notion of the ownership of English and the idealized speaker of English prevail due to the lingering dichotomy between so called non native English speaking teachers NNESTs and native English speaking teachers NESTs a dichotomy that unfortunately intersects with views of ethnoracial and cultural difference and which leads to discriminatory tendencies in pedagogical practices educational cultures and social structures The overall purpose of this volume is to initiate conversations about how issues surrounding language race and multiculturalism currently inform pedagogical practice in English Language Teaching ELT in Japan We the editor and contributors intend to explore these issues with the hope that the experiences and pedagogical actions documented in this volume will motivate others to reflect on current challenges raise appreciation for diversity in ELT and dismantle inequities
