

BALKAN DEPARTURES

The background image is a photograph of a vintage light-colored station wagon, possibly a Fiat Tempra, parked on a dirt road. In the background, a person is standing on a rocky outcrop, looking towards a mountain range under a hazy sky. The overall tone is nostalgic and evocative of travel.

Balkan Departures Travel Writing From South Eastern Europe:

Balkan Departures Wendy Bracewell,Alex Drace-Francis,2010-10 In writings about travel the Balkans appear most often as a place travelled to Western accounts of the Balkans revel in the different and the exotic the violent and the primitive traits that serve according to many commentators as a foil to self congratulatory definitions of the West as modern progressive and rational However the Balkans have also long been travelled from The region s writers have given accounts of their travels in the West and elsewhere saying something in the process about themselves and their place in the world The analyses presented here ranging from those of 16th century Greek humanists to 19th century Romanian reformers to 20th century writers socialists and men of the world suggest that travellers from the region have also created their own identities through their encounters with Europe Consequently this book challenges assumptions of Western discursive hegemony while at the same time exploring Balkan Occidentalisms

Narrating the Dragoman's Self in the Veneto-Ottoman Balkans, c. 1550-1650 Stefan Hanß, 2023-04-18 This microhistory of the Salvagos an Istanbul family of Venetian interpreters and spies travelling the sixteenth and seventeenth century Mediterranean is a remarkable feat of the historian s craft of storytelling With his father having been killed by secret order of Venice and his nephew to be publicly assassinated by Ottoman authorities Genesino Salvago and his brothers started writing self narratives When crossing the borders of words and worlds the Salvagos self narratives helped navigate at times beneficial other times unsettling entanglements of empire family and translation The discovery of an autobiographical text with rich information on Southeastern Europe edited here for the first time is the starting point of this extraordinary microbiography of a family s intense struggle for manoeuvring a changing world disrupted by competition betrayal and colonialism This volume recovers the Venetian life stories of Ottoman subjects and the crucial role of translation in negotiating a shared but fragile Mediterranean Stefan Han examines an interpreter s translational practices of the self and recovers the wider Mediterranean significance of the early modern Balkan contact zone Offering a novel conversation between translation studies Mediterranean studies and the history of life writing this volume argues that dragomans practices of translation border crossing and mobility were key to their experiences and performances of the self This book is an indispensable reading for the history of the early modern Mediterranean self narratives Venice the Ottoman Empire and Southeastern Europe as well as the history of translation Han presents a truly fascinating narrative a microhistory full of insights and rich perspectives

Keywords for Travel Writing Studies Charles Forsdick, Zoë Kinsley, Kathryn Walchester, 2019-04-22 Keywords for Travel Writing Studies draws on the notion of the keyword as initially elaborated by Raymond Williams in his seminal 1976 text Keywords: A Vocabulary of Culture and Society to present 100 concepts central to the study of travel writing as a literary form Each entry in the volume is around 1 000 words the style more essayistic than encyclopaedic with contributors reflecting on their chosen keyword from a variety of disciplinary perspectives The emphasis on travelogues and other cultural representations of mobility drawn from a range of national and linguistic traditions ensures that the volume has a comparative dimension the aim is to give an overview of each term in its historical and theoretical complexity providing readers with a clear sense of how the selected words are essential to a critical understanding of travel writing Each entry is complemented by an annotated bibliography of five essential items suggesting further reading

Languages at War H. Footitt, M. Kelly, 2015-12-26 Emphasising the significance of foreign languages at the centre of war and conflict this book argues that foreignness and foreign languages are key to our understanding of what happens in war Through case studies the book traces the role of languages in intelligence military deployment soldier civilian meetings occupation and peace building

Migrating Memories James Koranyi, 2021-12-16 Charts the transnational story of Romanian Germans in modern Europe their migration their position as a minority and their memories

Communism Unwrapped Paulina Bren, Mary Neuburger, 2012-09-20 Communism Unwrapped is a collection of essays that unwraps the complex world of consumption under communism in postwar Eastern Europe featuring new work by both American and European scholars writing from variety of disciplinary perspectives The result is a fresh look at everyday life under communism that explores the ways people shopped ate drank smoked cooked acquired exchanged and assessed goods These phenomena the editors argue were central to the way that communism was lived and experienced in its widely varied contexts in the region Consumption pervaded everyday life far more than most other political and social phenomena From design to production to retail sales and black market exchange Communism Unwrapped follows communist goods from producer to consumer tracing their circuitous routes In the communist world this journey was rife with its own meanings shaped by the special political and social circumstances of these societies In examining consumption behind the Iron Curtain this volume builds on a new field of study It brings dimension and nuance to our understanding of the communist period and a new perspective to our current analyses of consumerism

Interpreting the Peace M. Kelly, C. Baker, 2012-11-30 Analysing the issues of language that faced international forces carrying out peace operations in Bosnia Herzegovina in the 1990s this book examines how differences of language were an integral part of the conflicts in the country and in what way the multinational UN and NATO forces faced their own problems of communication and language support

The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century Glennys Young, 2011-10-13 Using a source based approach The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century is the first text designed to help students general readers and scholars understand how people constructed Communist ways of life around the world Taking a global approach it extends beyond Russia and Eastern Europe to examine the lives of people in China Korea Vietnam Cambodia Kyrgyzstan Algeria Peru Cuba and elsewhere The book provides an inside look at the Communist experience where people were sometimes simultaneously so enthusiasts reshapers resisters and victims of an ideological project that was and for some still is both humanity's darkest nightmare and brightest hope Since the collapse of Communist regimes beginning in 1989 vital questions about how people subjectively experienced Communism helped to shape it and constructed an idea of self in such restrictive environments have not lost their political significance In fact just the opposite holds true The opening of many formerly closed Communist archives has given scholars the opportunity to research the political significance that the construction of the self had across Communist regimes politics and movements Incorporating the latest scholarship The Communist Experience in the Twentieth Century includes previously unavailable documents such as diaries and letters which are now accessible as a result of the archival revolution A photo essay Everyday Life and Everyday Things under Socialism 1945 1989 uses visual evidence to explore everyday life across the Communist civilizations A locator map at the beginning of each chapter identifies the places associated with each of the sources and a chronology provides a comparative timeline for Communist and world history

The Great Cauldron Marie-Janine Calic, 2019-06-10 A sweeping history of southeastern Europe from antiquity to the present that reveals it to be a vibrant crossroads of trade ideas and religions We often think of the Balkans as a region beset by turmoil and backwardness but from late antiquity to the present it has been a dynamic meeting place of cultures and religions Combining deep insight with narrative flair The Great Cauldron invites us to reconsider the history of this intriguing diverse region as essential to the story of global Europe Marie Janine Calic reveals the many ways in which southeastern Europe s position at the crossroads of East and West shaped continental and global developments The nascent merchant capitalism of the Mediterranean world helped the Balkan knights fight the Ottomans in the fifteenth century The deep pull of nationalism led a young Serbian bookworm to spark the conflagration of World War I The late twentieth century saw political Islam spread like wildfire in a region where Christians and Muslims had long lived side by side Along with vivid snapshots of revealing moments in time including Kruj in 1450 and Sarajevo in 1984 Calic introduces fascinating figures rarely found in standard European histories We meet the Greek merchant and poet Rhigas Velestinlis whose revolutionary pamphlet called for a general uprising against Ottoman tyranny in 1797 And the Croatian bishop Ivan Dominik Stratiko who argued passionately for equality of the sexes and whose success with women astonished even his friend Casanova Calic s ambitious reappraisal expands and deepens our understanding of the ever changing mixture of peoples faiths and civilizations in this much neglected nexus of empire
