Balkan Smoke Tobacco And The Making Of Modern Bulgaria:

Balkan Smoke Mary C. Neuburger, 2012-10-04 This fascinating book explores the history of tobacco and tobacco culture in Bulgaria from the mid 19th century when the country became partially and then fully independent from the Ottoman Empire to the postcommunist present Neuburger argues convincingly that smoking and the production of tobacco products played an important if not the key part in Bulgaria's political economic and cultural modernization during this period

Summing Up Highly recommended Choice In Balkan Smoke Mary C Neuburger leads readers along the Bulgarian Ottoman caravan routes and into the coffeehouses of Istanbul and Sofia She reveals how a remote country was drawn into global economic networks through tobacco production and consumption and in the process became modern In writing the life of tobacco in Bulgaria from the late Ottoman period through the years of Communist rule Neuburger gives us much more than the cultural history of a commodity she provides a fresh perspective on the genesis of modern Bulgaria itself The tobacco trade comes to shape most of Bulgaria's international relations it drew Bulgaria into its fateful alliance with Nazi Germany and in the postwar period Bulgaria was the primary supplier of smokes the famed Bulgarian Gold for the USSR and its satellites By the late 1960s Bulgaria was the number one exporter of tobacco in the world with roughly one eighth of its population involved in production Through the pages of this book we visit the places where tobacco is grown and meet the merchants the workers and the peasant growers most of whom are Muslim by the postwar period Along the way we learn how smoking and anti smoking impulses influenced perceptions of luxury and necessity questions of novelty imitation value taste and gender based respectability While the scope is often global Neuburger also explores the politics of tobacco within Bulgaria Among the book's surprises are the ways in which conflicts over the tobacco industry and smoking help to clarify the forbidding quagmire of Bulgarian politics

Neuburger also explores the politics of tobacco within Bulgaria Among the book's surprises are the ways in which conflicts over the tobacco industry and smoking help to clarify the forbidding quagmire of Bulgarian politics Cigarettes, Inc. Nan Enstad, 2018-12-10 Traditional narratives of capitalist change often rely on the myth of the willful entrepreneur from the global North who transforms the economy and delivers modernity for good or ill to the rest of the world With Cigarettes Inc Nan Enstad upends this story revealing the myriad cross cultural encounters that produced corporate life before World War II In this startling account of innovation and expansion Enstad uncovers a corporate network rooted in Jim Crow segregation that stretched between the United States and China and beyond Cigarettes Inc teems with a global cast from Egyptian American and Chinese entrepreneurs to a multiracial set of farmers merchants factory workers marketers and even baseball players jazz musicians and sex workers Through their stories Cigarettes Inc accounts for the cigarette's spectacular rise in popularity and in the process offers nothing less than a sweeping reinterpretation of corporate power itself The Cambridge World History of Genocide: Volume 3, Genocide in the Contemporary Era, 1914-2020 Ben Kiernan, Wendy Lower, Norman Naimark, Scott Straus, 2023-05-04 Volume III examines the most well known century of genocide the twentieth century Opening with a discussion on the definitions of genocide and ethnic cleansing and their relationships to modernity it continues with a survey of the genocide studies field racism and antisemitism The four parts cover the impacts of Racism Total War Imperial Collapse and Revolution the crises of World War Two the Cold War and Globalization Twenty eight scholars with expertise in specific regions document thirty genocides from 1918 to 2021 in Europe the Middle East Africa Asia and Latin America The cases range from the Armenian Genocide to Maoist China from the Holocaust to Stalin's Ukraine from Indonesia to Guatemala Biafra Bangladesh Cambodia Bosnia and Rwanda and finally the contemporary fate of the Rohingyas in Myanmar and the ISIS slaughter of Yazidis in Iraq The volume ends with a chapter on the strategies for genocide prevention moving forward Unsilencing Lilia Topouzova, 2025-07-15 Unsilencing provides the first comprehensive study of Bulgaria's forced labor camps a network of repression that operated throughout the communist era from 1945 to 1989 Lilia Topouzova uncovers the hidden histories of these camps often referred to as Bulgaria's Little Siberia where thousands were interned without trial subjected to inhumane conditions and silenced for decades Drawing on two decades of archival research oral history interviews with survivors and perpetrators and an array of primary sources Topouzova reconstructs the harrowing reality of life behind barbed wire She explores how the communist regime systematically used these camps to suppress dissent target minority groups and instill fear across the population Unsilencing presents detailed accounts of key sites like the Belene and Lovech camps revealing the brutalities endured by prisoners and the lasting scars these places left on Bulgarian society More than a historical recounting Unsilencing examines the post 1989 period and how Bulgaria has grappled or often failed to grapple with its recent past Topouzova assesses the country's efforts at transitional justice including the short lived truth commission and trials that sought to hold perpetrators accountable She argues that the legacy of the gulag has been largely forgotten and deliberately obscured leaving a vacuum in Bulgaria's collective memory that continues to affect its society and politics today

The Great Cauldron Marie-Janine Calic, 2019-06-10 A sweeping history of southeastern Europe from antiquity to the present that reveals it to be a vibrant crossroads of trade ideas and religions We often think of the Balkans as a region beset by turmoil and backwardness but from late antiquity to the present it has been a dynamic meeting place of cultures and religions Combining deep insight with narrative flair The Great Cauldron invites us to reconsider the history of this intriguing diverse region as essential to the story of global Europe Marie Janine Calic reveals the many ways in which southeastern Europe's position at the crossroads of East and West shaped continental and global developments The nascent merchant capitalism of the Mediterranean world helped the Balkan knights fight the Ottomans in the fifteenth century The deep pull of nationalism led a young Serbian bookworm to spark the conflagration of World War I The late twentieth century saw political Islam spread like wildfire in a region where Christians and Muslims had long lived side by side Along with vivid snapshots of revealing moments in time including Kruj in 1450 and Sarajevo in 1984 Calic introduces fascinating figures rarely found in standard European histories We meet the Greek merchant and poet Rhigas Velestinlis whose revolutionary pamphlet called for a general uprising against Ottoman tyranny in 1797 And the Croatian bishop Ivan Dominik Stratiko who argued passionately for equality of the sexes and whose success with women astonished even his friend Casanova Calic's ambitious reappraisal expands and deepens our understanding of the ever changing mixture of peoples faiths and civilizations in this much neglected nexus of empire

Kretek Capitalism Marina Welker, 2024-04-09 Indonesia is the world's second largest cigarette market two out of three men smoke and clove laced tobacco cigarettes called kretek make up 95 percent of the market To account for the staggering success of this lethal industry Kretek Capitalism moves beyond a focus on the addictive hold of nicotine to examine how kretek manufacturers have adopted global tobacco technologies and enlisted Indonesians to labor on their behalf in fields and factories at retail outlets and social gatherings and online The book charts how Sampoerna a Philip Morris International subsidiary uses contracts competitions and gender class and age hierarchies to extract overtime shift seasonal gig and unpaid labor from workers influencers artists students retailers and consumers Critically engaging nationalist claims about the commodity's cultural heritage and the jobs it supports Marina Welker shows how global capitalism has transformed both kretek and the labor required to make and promote it

The Oxford Handbook of Economic Imperialism Zak

Cope, Immanuel Ness, 2022 Including thirty four chapters written by academics and experts in the field of international political economy The Oxford Handbook of Economic Imperialism examines the history of economic imperialism from the early modern age to the present The Handbook demonstrates the persistence of economic imperialism in today's postcolonial world and the enduring control wielded by great powers even after the end of formal empire Moreover the Handbook reveals how emerging powers are expanding economic control in new geographic and geopolitical contexts and highlights the significance of economic imperialism in the structures relations processes and ideas that sustain poverty and conflict worldwide Global Anti-Vice Activism, 1890-1950 Jessica R. Pliley, Robert Kramm, Harald Fischer-Tiné, 2016-07-04 The Chinese style of prostitution regulation Tobacco in Global Perspective, 1780-1960 Alexander van Wickeren, Jean Stubbs, William Gervase Clarence-Smith, 2024-12-24 This edited collection provides an in depth analysis of the imperial colonial and postcolonial history of tobacco from 1780 to 1960 which was one of the major periods of change in the global tobacco economy It brings together case studies from known and lesser known tobacco regions of the world to interrogate tobacco s second globalisation a concept little employed by historians thus far but one which encapsulates tobacco s central role in Europe s imperial expansion beyond the Atlantic and the social political and cultural transformations of global capitalism taking place during the period The collection fills a gap in the study of commodities of empire which has examined tobacco primarily for the early modern Atlantic world or for single empires during the later period It invites comparison across borders encompassing political economic and sociocultural history and with a particular emphasis on trade knowledge and labour juxtaposes micro histories with a macro historical perspective Together the studies in the volume testify to the importance of tobacco in new places and among new players challenging the confines of national and imperial historiographical frameworks They demonstrate the rising dominance of new powerful forces including transnational corporations but also a wide range of actors in conflict and negotiation within territorial and imperial confines By systematically taking into account the agency in Europe s apparent peripheries and the Global South they critique a simple assumption of the dominance of the West Chapter 11 is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4 0 International License via link springer.com Refusing Sustainability Elana Resnick, 2025-07-29 Sustainability has become a touchstone for development worldwide promising an antidote to environmental degradation and capitalism s excess waste Refusing Sustainability presents a fundamentally different account of sustainability and waste itself by uncovering the intersections of international environmental reforms and racialized labor In Bulgaria Roma comprise the bulk of the country s waste workers while anti Roma racism casts them as socially disposable Without their labor however the country cannot meet the sustainability targets required by the European Union Drawing on fieldwork that spans twenty years including eleven months working alongside Romani women street sweepers and years embedded in waste organizations political campaigns Roma NGOs and activist groups Elana Resnick examines the power hierarchies that shape both waste management and European geopolitics Instead of focusing on only environmental harms or toxic distributions Refusing Sustainability approaches Romani life worlds as spaces of creative production and also tells several larger stories of postsocialist racial capitalism environmental progressivism democratic failures mutual aid and the power of women s friendships Through these stories Resnick illuminates how ordinary people racialized as discardable resist systems that simultaneously rely on and exclude them From Peoples Into Nations John Connelly, 2022-01-25 This book is a history of East Central Europe since the late eighteenth century the region of Europe between German central Europe and Russia in the East Connolly argues the region for which it is frequently hard to define exact boundaries and which is sometimes treated country by country in a way seemingly separate from the broader trends of European history was one of shared experience despite most of the peoples being divided by linguistic geographic and political barriers Beginning in the 1780s an unwitting Habsburg monarch Joseph II decreed that his subjects would use only German as he hoped to mold a common nationality using German over the disparate subjects Instead he unleashed the energies and struggle for the emergence of new nations that pitted small peoples armed with an idea against empires The author argues that the underlying national self assertion which emerged under imperial rule in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries shows deep connections to subsequent histories to the creation of nation states of the regions after World War I the failure of democratic rule in these states during the interwar years the submersion of the region under Nazi then Soviet rule after 1939 and to the reinvention of sovereign states and then the break up of two of them after 1989 The book interconnects major themes and country histories for first time chronicling this diverse region over many generations from the time of Joseph through democratic and socialist revolutions genocide and Stalinism through civil society movements struggling for liberal democracy into our own day when illiberal politicians come to power by exploiting very old fears Osiris, Volume 37 Tara Alberts, Sietske Fransen, Elaine

Leong, 2021-06-21 Highlights the importance of translation for the global exchange of medical theories practices and materials in the premodern period This volume of Osiris turns the analytical lens of translation onto medical knowledge and practices across the premodern world Understandings of the human body and of diseases and their cures were influenced by a range of religious cultural environmental and intellectual factors As a result complex systems of translation emerged as people crossed linguistic and territorial boundaries to share not only theories and concepts but also materials such as drugs amulets and surgical tools The studies here reveal how instances of translation helped to shape and in some cases reimagine these ideas and objects to fit within local frameworks of medical belief Translating Medicine across Premodern Worlds features case studies located in geographically and temporally diverse contexts including ninth century Baghdad sixteenth century Seville seventeenth century Cartagena and nineteenth century Bengal Throughout the contributors explore common themes and divergent experiences associated with a variety of historical endeavors to translate knowledge about health and the body across languages practices and media By deconstructing traditional narratives and de-emphasizing well worn dichotomies this volume ultimately offers a fresh and innovative approach to histories of knowledge Labor and Power in the Late Ottoman Empire Can Nacar, 2019-11-16 By the early twentieth century consumers around the world had developed a taste for Ottoman grown tobacco Employing tens of thousands of workers the Ottoman tobacco industry flourished in the decades between the 1870s to the First Balkan War and it became the locus of many of the most active labor struggles across the empire Can Nacar delves into the lives of these workers and their fight for better working conditions

Full of insight into the changing relations of power between capital and labor in the Ottoman Empire and the role played by state actors in these relations this book also draws on a rich array of primary sources to foreground the voices of tobacco workers themselves The Socialist Good Life Cristofer Scarboro,Diana Mincyte,Zsuzsu Gille,2020-06-02 First class rigorously researched richly documented and thought provoking essays on the consumer experience in socialist Eastern Europe Graham H Roberts author of Material Culture in Russia and the USSR As communist regimes denigrated Western countries for widespread unemployment and consumer excess socialist Eastern European states simultaneously legitimized their power through their apparent ability to satisfy consumers needs Moving beyond binaries of production and consumption the essays collected here examine the lessons consumption studies can offer about ethnic and national identity and the role of economic expertise in shaping consumer behavior From Polish VCRs to Ukrainian fashion boutiques tropical fruits in the GDR to cinemas in Belgrade The Socialist Good Life explores what consumption means in a worker state where communist ideology emphasizes collective needs over individual pleasures Recent Advances in Social Sciences Recep Efe,Irina Koleva,2018-11-15 This book covers recent advances for quantitative researchers with practical examples from the social sciences It provides essential information on important issues such as tourism geography history sociology politics economy and sport sciences Each chapter offers a comprehensive range of practical ideas and examples and all topics are covered by an expert in the field in question This volume will enable readers to realize that what they see as specific to their own discipline is in fact common to several different fields Kurdish Studies Archive Martin van Bruinessen,2025-01-07 Kurdish Studies Archive publishes the content of volumes 1 to 10 of Kurdish Studies This interdisciplinary and peer reviewed journal was dedicated to publishing high quality research and scholarship Since 2023 the journal has been continued as the new Kurdish Studies Journal published by Brill and focuses on research scholarship and debates in the field of Kurdish studies in a multidisciplinary fashion covering a wide range of topics including but not limited to economics history society gender minorities politics health law environment language media culture arts and education Socialist Escapes Cathleen M. Giustino,Catherine J. Plum,Alexander Vari,2013-03-01 During much of the Cold War physical escape from countries in the Eastern Bloc was a nearly impossible act There remained however possibilities for other socialist escapes particularly time spent free from party ideology and the mundane routines of everyday life The essays in this volume examine sites of socialist escapes such as beaches campgrounds nightclubs concerts castles cars and soccer matches The chapters explore the effectiveness of state efforts to engineer society through leisure entertainment and related forms of cultural programming and consumption They lead to a deeper understanding of state society relations in the Soviet sphere where the state did not simply dictate from above and inhabitants had some opportunities to shape solidarities identities and meaning The Central Synagogue of Sofia Fani Gargova,2024-11-18 The Central Synagogue of Sofia was built between 1905 and 1909 as a highly visible and monumental structure in the social commercial and religious center of the Bulgarian capital Having survived the Second World War it remains a testament to early 20th century Sofia and its majority Sephardic Jewish community In its architecture it reflects the city's search for its own modern European and national identity whilst attesting to the struggle of the Sofia Jewish community headed by its chief rabbi Marcus Ehrenpreis to claim its place within the nation building project In this first in depth study of the building Fani Gargova illuminates the history of the Central Synagogue of Sofia and the motivations behind its construction by positioning its appearance and architecture vis vis Central European Reform synagogues and the emerging Bulgarian national style By looking at the building through the lens of urban planning building material and technique liturgy as well as musical performance this book significantly expands the common notion of synagogue architecture

The Youngest Yugoslavs Jovana Babović, 2025-11-04 Reflecting on the final decades of socialism eight individuals born in former Yugoslavia between 1971 and 1991 recount their memories of childhood and early adulthood and how that time period has made a lasting impact on their lives The Youngest Yugoslavs is an oral history collection that gives its readers in depth varied perspectives on why Yugoslavia continues to resonate among its former citizens more than 30 years since the state collapsed amid war genocide and dislocation Their interviews with author Jovana Babović showcase how these individuals remember their childhoods during the final decades of socialism and how they conceptualize the lasting impact Yugoslavia has had on their lives The Youngest Yugoslavs offers insight on how this generation of Yugoslav individuals have reconciled the loss of their homeland and how they have continued to find meaning in the Yugoslav past as both a lived experience and as a set of ideals
