to and avenues for social rebirth the process by which African descended peoples reconstructed their lives individually and collectively after forced exportation from West Africa This was an active process of cultural remembrance continued resistance and communal survival It was in these urban slave communities within the connections between neighbors and kinfolk that the enslaved found the physical and psychological resources necessary to endure the seemingly unendurable Whether sites of first arrival commodification sale short term captivity or lifetime enslavement the urban Atlantic shaped and was shaped by Black lives The History Highway Dennis A.
